Dr. Korina Jocson

Dr. Korina Jocson teaches in the Department of Education at Washington University in St. Louis. Her areas of interest include literacy and technology, youth culture, pedagogy, and urban education. In the past decade, Jocson has collaborated with university programs, schools, and community-based organizations to promote literacy development, culturally responsive pedagogy, and social inclusion. She has published in a number of scholarly journals, and is the author of Youth Poets: Empowering Literacies In and Out of Schools (Peter Lang, 2008). Her edited volume Cultural Transformations: Youth and Pedagogies of Possibility will be released this fall (Harvard Education Press, in press).
