A Rankin Fund scholarship applicant must be:

- A woman
- A U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Age 35 or older, as of March 18, 2016
- Low-income (financial guidelines are available on our website)
- Enrolled in or accepted to a regionally or ACICS accredited school
- Pursuing a vocational education, an associate's degree, or a first bachelor's degree.

Eligible students can apply online. The deadline is March 18, 2016.

The Strong Sisters Premiere

Sunday, March 6

12:00 - 3:00 p.m. and 12:45 - 3:45 p.m.

Alamo Drafthouse Cinema in Littleton

Wednesday, March 30th

| 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

| LSC 308-310, Lory Student Center, CSU

"Strong Sisters: Elected Women in Colorado" tells the extraordinary story of elected women in Colorado. The compilation of oral histories from past and current female elected officials is the foundation for this documentary film. So what's going on in Colorado? Why does Colorado have this proud history of electing women to public office? What difference have elected women made in our state? And why hasn't Colorado elected a female Governor, U.S. Senator, or Mayor of Denver? Strong Sisters examines these questions and inspires today's women to build on our remarkable history. There will be two screenings: one in Littleton on March 6th and one at CSU on March 30th. For more information and to buy tickets for the Littleton screening, visit the website. For ticket information regarding the CSU screening, click here.

2016 Work on Purpose Workshop

February 26th | 12:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. | The Garden Room of the Chambers Center

Passionate about living and working for social good? This "Work on Purpose" workshop will help you identify the kind of work that is right for you and for the world by helping you realize the unique ways in which you can make a social impact. Learn how to apply your personal genius to issues that you care most about, develop the boldness and spirit of risk-taking, and learn to live and work with meaning! This upcoming 1/2 day workshop is a great opportunity for students who are trying to clarify how they want to plug into the world and leverage their talents and passions. This workshop is FREE and includes snacks and lunch! Register today. For more info, please contact Ryan John Hanschen.

Applying for Aid for the 2016-17 Academic Year

It's already time to start thinking about applying for financial aid for the next academic year! Remember: you must reapply for financial aid every year you attend DU.

How to Apply:

- Complete the 2016-17 FAFSA (available January 1st)
- Complete the 2016-17 CSS PROFILE (available now)
(The CSS PROFILE is not required for music majors or for students in the Colorado Women's College or University College).

When to Apply:

The priority deadline for current students is March 15th.

What You'll Need:

All of your 2015 tax information, including your completed tax return. If you are unable to file your return before completing the FAFSA, you may use estimates. However, if you use estimates, please go back to www.FAFSA.gov to correct your application using IRS Data Retrieval once your tax return has been accepted by the IRS.

We will begin sending 2016-17 financial aid award letters to those with completed applications in early June. Learn more about applying for financial aid or download the application checklist.

Reverse Career Fair

Tuesday, February 16th | 5:00 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. | Driscoll Ballroom

Student Groups and Teams Register by February 8, 2016

Did you know that talent recruiters from organizations that hire DU students are constantly looking for ways to connect with student groups, teams and engaged student leaders? The Reverse Career Fair is your group's opportunity to host a table and share your talent and experience with recruiters looking to hire interns and full time staff. The University of Denver Career Services Employer Advisory Board specifically suggested that we create this type of event as a new way to connect students and employers. Many employers are also willing to support student groups by sponsoring events and this is the first step in building those important relationships. Register your group now and you'll be one step closer to the job or internship of your dreams. Jackie Leung (varsity swimmer and student leader), BA '12 recently wrote a blog post about her success at Teach for America that started over one cup of coffee. Read her story here. Prize Money: Every student group that attends will be entered to win one of three prizes of $250, $150 or $100. Attendees must be present during the drawing at the end of the event to win.

Coming Up

Lunafest Film Festival

Thursday, March 31 | 5-8:30pm | Sturm Hall, Davis Auditorium

Kick off the Women's Conference with the Lunafest Film Festival, presented by Colorado Women's College and the Living and Learning Communities. The festival will feature six short films by women, for women, and about women - plus a community reception and lively panel discussions. Check out the festival trailer for a sneak peek at the films! Funds raised from the event will go to the Breast Cancer Fund and the Blossom Project. Register for the Women's Conference and get $2 off your ticket. Tickets going on sale soon!

Tickets: $8 ($6 for students)

21st Annual DU Women's Conference: Call for Proposals

The 21st annual DU Women's Conference theme is "Not Just a Women's Conference: Issues that Affect Women Impact Everyone." We are currently accepting workshop proposals! The deadline to submit is Feb. 19, and the conference date is April 1. What we are looking for: Issues that impact women are still often assumed to impact only women. Their concerns and needs have struggled to garner broad-based attention and support. We are seeking workshop proposals that examine this, and encourage attendees to realize and embrace the reality that "women's issues" are issues that impact individuals of all gender identities. Help us re-frame these conversations as a community to more accurately reflect the universal nature of their impact and move towards inclusive and transformative change by submitting a workshop proposal today.

Colorado Women's College Alumnae Association 2016 Scholarship

Available to all full-time and part-time CWC students: at least one scholarship presented by the CWC Alumnae Association will be awarded for the 2016 academic year based on an essay response. Applications are due Monday, February 29th by 4:30 p.m. For more information about applying, read this flyer. For further information, contact Bonnie Hahn.

Announcing the 2016 "One Book, One College" Winter & Spring Quarter 2016 | Colorado Women's College

We are bringing back our "One Book, One College" series this winter with Find Me Unafraid: Love, Loss, and Hope in an African Slum, written by Kennedy Odede & Jessica Posner, with a foreword by Nicholas Kristof. This series is open to all CWC Students, Staff, Faculty, and Alumni. Complimentary books are now available in the CWC Advising office. Stop by Lydia's desk to sign up and obtain your free copy of the book! If you have questions about One Book, One College 2016, please contact: Arthur C. Jones, Ph.D., Clinical Professor and Associate Dean for Inclusive Excellence. Email: Arthur.Jones@du.edu.

More information about the book below:

Find Me Unafraid tells the uncommon love story between two uncommon people whose collaboration sparked a successful movement to transform the lives of vulnerable girls and the urban poor. This is the story of two young people from completely different worlds: Kennedy Odede from Kibera, the largest slum in Africa, and Jessica Posner from Denver, Colorado. Kennedy foraged for food, lived on the street, and taught himself to read with old newspapers. When an American volunteer gave him the work of Mandela, Garvey, and King, teenaged Kennedy decided he was going to change his life and his community. Ultimately, this is a love story about a fight against poverty and hopelessness, the transformation made possible by a true love, and the power of young people to have a deep impact on the world.

SAAM Summit: Save the Date & Submit Proposals

Workshop proposals due Feb. 19; Summit April 7-8

Each year, the University of Denver recognizes Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM) during April by hosting a number of awareness and education events for the DU community. The second annual SAAM Summit will be "Beyond the Single Story: Strengthening our Understanding of Gender, Sexuality, and Violence," with the goal to deepen and complicate the narratives around the intersectionality of gender, sexuality and gender-based violence. Keynote for the summit is Andrea Gibson, who will perform on the evening of April 7, followed by a day of workshops on April 8. Submit workshop proposals by Feb. 19. This year's summit is a collaborative effort brought to you by the Center for Advocacy, Prevention, and Empowerment; Title IX; Gender and Women Studies Department; Center for Multicultural Excellence; Undergraduate Women's Council; Undergraduate Student Government; Queer Straight Alliance; and the Student Coalition for the Eradication of Sexual Assault.

Hunger Through My Lens Exhibit

January 28th - March 11th | University of Denver Museum of Anthropology, Sturm Hall 102

Did you know that nearly one-in-seven Coloradans struggle with hunger, facing times when there is not enough money to buy food? Hunger Through My Lens features photography by local individuals who experience hunger-putting real stories to the overwhelming statistics surrounding hunger. The photographs provide tangible evidence that there's a need to face the impacts of hunger on individuals, families and communities throughout Colorado. The exhibit runs Jan. 28-March 11. The gallery is typically open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m. or by appointment. To confirm gallery hours or make special accommodations, please call 303-871-2687 or email anne.amati@du.edu.

DU Staff Advisory Council Annual Coat Drive

February 1st - February 15, 2016

The Staff Advisory Council is hosting their annual coat drive. There will be drop-off locations around campus accepting ALL winter items (not just coats) including gloves, hats, scarves, blankets, kid's winter weather coats and accessories, etc. So start rummaging through your winter items for our friends at Denver Rescue Mission! Look for the box in the Chambers Center for the Advancement of Women beginning February 1st! If you are interested in helping SAC with this drive by posting fliers or checking drop-off boxes in your area, please email Tamra Carlson at tamra.carlson@du.edu.

Summit League "Food Fight"

Feb. 7th - 21st

The Summit League Food Fight is an annual initiative where each school in the Summit League is charged with collecting food and donations as its major service competition of the year. We are trying to catch the South Dakota State Jackrabbits who won last year's competition by raising over 23,000 lbs. of food and money in donations. During this period we will launch several initiatives to collect donations so keep an eye out at DU athletic events and for student-athletes making the rounds across campus. Anything you want to contribute would be greatly appreciated.

Donate NON-PERISHABLES (canned goods especially!) or MONEY by Feb. 21.

Mindfulness: Boost Your Zen is back (Eight-Week Program)

Thursdays through March 10th | noon - 12:45 p.m. | University Hall, Room 306

How do you bring a sense of calm, relaxation and focus to the rush of daily life? In this eight-week course, you'll learn a practical approach to staying calm, being focused and handling stress. You'll love this course if you've wanted to know more about meditation and mindfulness but weren't sure how they could help you in real life. Each class is a blend of practical, down-to-earth exercises in mindfulness, meditation and stress reduction. You'll decompress, you'll laugh, you'll feel like you took a vacation at lunchtime. Both past and new participants are welcome! Please register via PioneerWeb.

"Let's Talk" Drop-In Counseling Consultations

Mondays 1:00pm - 2:00pm | Tuesdays 3:00pm - 5:00pm | Wednesdays 1:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m. | Thursdays 9:00am - 11:00am | Driscoll South (Next to the Pioneer Card ID Office)

Are you unsure about counseling or wonder what it's like to talk to a counselor? Not interested in ongoing counseling but would like the perspective of a counselor? Do you have a specific problem and would like someone with whom to talk it through? Do you have a concern about a friend or family member and would like ideas about what to do? Let's Talk provides drop-in counseling consultations for all DU students at locations around campus. This fall we are located at Driscoll South (next to the Pioneer Card ID office). For more information, please visit the website here.
