Calling all Recent Grads! Graduate Study Opportunity at DU
Are you a recent graduate who is interested in pursuing a master's degree?
A new program at the Daniels College of Business allows DU students of all majors who have demonstrated academic excellence with a 3.5 GPA or higher... to enroll through automatic admission for select master's degrees at Daniels (accountancy, business analytics, finance, real estate and the built environment, marketing, and management). The application takes less than one minute to complete and requires no test scores, essays, or letters of recommendation. Start dates available in fall and spring quarters. Students graduating this August or who have already graduated in the last two quarters may apply at http://daniels.du.edu/maapapp.

To learn more about these graduate programs, visit http://daniels.du.edu/masters-degrees/ or contact Jessica Hanna, Assistant Director of Admissions at Daniels (jessica.hanna@du.edu; 303.871.2204). You can also check out this flyer for more information.

Catalyst Series: Preparing, Recruiting, & Retaining Women and Girls in STEM

Wednesday July 8 | 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm | The Posner Center for International Development | 1031 33rd St. Denver CO 80205

Real community conversations about making tangible changes to help women and girls in Colorado reach their full potential. Did you know that women in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) fields earn, on average, 33% more than those in other fields, yet women account for only 25% of the STEM workforce. Join The Women’s Foundation of Colorado and a featured panel of experts to get real about gender bias in STEM and how it affects the preparation, recruitment, and retention of women in STEM fields. This event is open to the public, and there is no cost to attend. Light refreshments will be served. For more information, see the event flyer. RSVP to Shayna Braunstein at EC@wfco.org by July 2, 2015.

Women Powering Change

July 9 | 4 pm - 7 pm |Exdo Event Center, 1399 35th st, Denver CO 80205

Around the world there is a steady pulse of women working passionately to create change. In every country these women are stepping up and speaking out against our world’s most pressing problems - including human rights, environmental sustainability, and social justice. In the space between their actions lies an opportunity for collective impact.

This July, step into that space and join more than 100 organizations at Women Powering Change 2015 to connect with innovative leaders, inspire collective impact and accelerate action for social change. This free event is designed to catalyze collaboration between women working to create a better world, locally and globally.

Campus Perceptions of Unwanted Sexual Experiences
Last week, you received an email inviting you to take a survey regarding "Campus Perceptions of Unwanted Sexual Experiences." Please take 15 minutes out of your day to take this important survey: http://bit.ly/1ccbg6v.
Over this academic year, the University has been providing a series of updates about its ongoing efforts to both address sexual misconduct and create a more compassionate and supportive community at DU. They are taking steps to assess our current environment and understand which areas need improvement, and this anonymous survey is a key part of the process.
