

Dear Award Committee Members,

It is with great pleasure that I nominate Dr. Cheri Young for this years' University Distinguished Teaching Award.

I was fortunate enough to take the Human Capital in Hospitality class with Dr. Young this past fall, so I can confidently state that I have never had a professor like Dr. Young before. Her class is not only challenging and intellectually stimulating in ways I had never been exposed to before, but she was also there with me every step of the way to assist me in overcoming these challenges. Whenever I needed help with any of the assignments I always felt very comfortable e-mailing Dr. Young or going into her office for help. If I did not understand a concept we learned in class, she was very effective in explaining it to me from a different angle so that I could better understand the learning outcomes.

Dr. Young is a highly effective instructor, as well as a personable professor, and for these reasons I am nominating Dr. Young for the University Distinguished Teaching Award.

Warmly,
