Dear Dr. Young,

Thank you for initiating and participating in a midterm course feedback session this quarter. This process, which includes a student feedback session and follow-up consultation, is a productive way to obtain feedback and reflect on your teaching practice.

I encourage you to periodically gather constructive feedback about your teaching in order to further the Daniels College of Business' and the University of Denver's common goal of continually improving student learning. I hope you found the experience to be worthwhile and the process as a whole provided some valuable reflection and fresh insight into your teaching.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Light
