Learn About Life after College with Best-Selling Higher Education Author

MCE Students are invited to apply to participate in a special forum with best-selling author Jeffrey Selingo on October 4 from 2:30-3:30PM. The Forum will focus on his latest book, There is Life After College, which explores how college students can successfully navigate the transition to post-college life and prepare to thrive in their careers. Space is limited.

To apply for the forum, send a one-page response to the following question: "Why do you want to participate in the forum, and how does it align with your educational interests?" to your department's ASA by 5pm on September 23. Students accepted into the forum will receive a complimentary copy of the book which they are expected to read before the event.
