Re: GSSW Fall International Courses Postponed

Dear GSSW Students,

We write with an update and decision about the GSSW international courses that were tentatively scheduled for Fall Quarter. Given the ongoing impact of the pandemic across the world, and in consultation with our in-country, host community partners, we have decided to postpone all GSSW international course travel until Spring 2022 Quarter, with anticipated travel in June. Thus, these three courses will be cancelled for Fall Quarter:

- SOWK 4757-1: SW & Latinx Cultures (Chiapas, Mexico course), CRN: 5122
- SOWK 4758-1: SW in Kenya, CRN: 5123
- SOWK 4763-1: SW & Social Justice: South Africa, CRN: 5124

It is anticipated that these courses will be offered in Spring Quarter, along with the other international course of SOWK 4762: Bosnia in Transition: The SW Response. For more information on these course options, refer to the International Experiences page on the GSSW Student Resource Portal.

If you were registered in one of these courses, you will be atomically dropped from the course. You can add a replacement course through the regular registration procedures.

If you want advising guidance or have other questions, you can join the GSSW Academic Affairs weekly virtual office hours on Thursdays, 11:00 am - 12:00 noon at this: <https://udenver.zoom.us/j/98092628252>
