

International Studies and Public Policy Internship Newsletter

Overview

Win up to $25,000 towards learning a language abroad!! This is an intensive application, so the earlier you start it the better.

Build proficiency in a foreign language – Boren Scholars and Fellows study a wide range of critical languages, including Arabic, Hindi, Mandarin, Portuguese, Russian, and Swahili. Boren Awards are available to students of all proficiency levels who are committed to enhancing their skills.

Immerse yourself in another culture – Boren Scholars and Fellows from diverse fields of study immerse themselves in the cultures in world regions critical to U.S. interests and underrepresented in study abroad, including Africa, Asia, Eurasia, Latin America, and the Middle East.

Launch a career in public service – Boren Awards alumni are committed to public service, applying their language skills, cultural knowledge, and academic credentials in careers critical to U.S. national security throughout the federal government, including the Departments of State, Defense, and Homeland Security, and USAID.

Application Deadline: Wednesday, 2/2/22

For more information and to apply,
click here.

If you are planning to apply to the CLS program,
applications are due next week!
Due Date: Tuesday, November 16,
2021
8:00 p.m. EST.

In this issue:

- Boren Awards
- Upcoming Events
- Featured Internships
- Spotlight on: Rangel Program

UPCOMING EVENTS

Best Practices in Applying for Grad School

Monday 11/15/21, 11 am – 12 pm EST

Each month, APSIA hosts a free webinar with best practices in applying to graduate school. We walk attendees through the basics of selecting a program, putting together an application, paying for school, and more.

For more information and to register,

click here.

How to Create a Meaningful Hybrid Experience

Thursday 11/18/21, 11:30 – 12 pm MST

The traditional business meeting needed a reinvention well before the pandemic, and virtual fatigue is everywhere you look. How does a group of professionals assemble, effectively, when some people are remote and some are physically present? Executive Education Faculty

Bo Storozuk reports what successful organizations are doing: they are creating an experience, not a meeting.

For more information and to register,

click here.

Circle I Networking Event

Thursday 12/2/21, 4:30 – 6 pm MST

Circle I is hosting a networking event for people interested in connecting with others in intelligence in The Rocky Mountain Region.

Please join us for an opportunity to make connections with others/interested in careers in the service of national security.

For more information and to register,

click here.

FEATURED INTERNSHIPS

Make a Wish Colorado Development Intern Flexible

The Development Internship will provide the opportunity to work collaboratively with the Development and Communications staff of the Make-A-Wish Colorado office. The intern will participate in a variety of activities including, but not limited to: the coordination, implementation, and measurement of events, programs, and projects, as well as researching, and database entry. This internship offers hands-on internal and external experience.

Application Deadline: 11/19/21

For more information and to apply, head over to PCO.

Spring 2022 AFPC Communications/Media Internship Flexible

Interns will work closely with our Director for External Communications and relevant program directors on digital, promotional, and event media. Interns must commit to a minimum of 15 hours per week, but days and times are flexible.

Application Deadline: Rolling

For more information and to apply, click here.

The Borgen Project – Various Internship Positions Available Remote

The Borgen Project believes that leaders of the most powerful nation on earth should be doing more to address global poverty. We're the innovative, national campaign that is working to make poverty a focus of U.S. foreign policy. They have various internships positions open for a writer/journalist internship, nonprofit-leadership internship, HR internship, and public affairs/marketing internship.

Application Deadline: 12/10/21

For more information and to apply, head over to PCO.

RANGEL INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS PROGRAM

Program Overview

The Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program is a six-week summer program designed to provide undergraduate students with a deeper appreciation of current issues and trends in international affairs, a greater understanding of career opportunities in international affairs, and the enhanced knowledge and skills to pursue such careers. This program encourages the application of members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the Foreign Service, women, and those with financial need. Students live at Howard University, attend classes, and participate in a variety of programs with foreign affairs professionals.

The program has two major components:

- The Program provides two courses and a seminar that focuses on enhancing knowledge and skills related to U.S. foreign policy, economics, and writing.
- The program introduces the participants to a wide range of government and non-government professionals who work on global issues and also arranges visits to various institutions involved in international affairs.

• The Program covers the costs for tuition, travel, housing, and two meals per day. It also provides a stipend of $3,300.

For more information and to apply, click here.