Subject: [col-sw-stu-MSW] COVID-19 Update: GSSW Update re: Monday Classes, March 13, 2020

Hello Denver Campus Students,

As of Friday morning, the Chancellor has cancelled classes for Monday, March 16 on the Denver Campus.

Your Friday class will proceed as planned, with the option for you to join online, as specified by your instructor.

For Monday, while GSSW classes may be held online, you are not required to attend. It will be optional for you to engage in your class, since the University cancelled classes. Your instructor will provide instructions by the end of the day if alternative learning activities / assignments are needed for your specific course, since Monday classes are cancelled. You can still opt to engage in the online class - we just can not require it. Please direct class specific questions to your instructors, and if you need further guidance, you may email GSSWAcademicAffairs@du.edu .

For your field internship, you can continue to follow the Temporary Interruption of Field Policy. Here, you have the option to engage in remote learning activities, per your needs or your agency's situation. Please inform your liaison and your internship supervisor of your plans.

Throughout all this, please know that we care about your health, safety, well-being, and ongoing learning.

Sincerely, Leslie

Leslie K. Hasche, Ph.D., M.S.W.
