Dear Denver Campus students:

As we move into the home stretch of Fall Quarter 2020, I write to check-in and share a reminder about the many resources available to support you along the way.

Notwithstanding the unparalleled circumstances we find ourselves in, I am struck by the incredible resilience and deep compassion that I witness in the GSSW community every day. Not only are we showing up with, and for, one another, social workers are leading our communities forward in ways that are meaningful, just, and more essential than ever.

While much remains uncertain about the future, I am reminded of the words of Maya Angelou: "You may encounter many defeats, but you must not be defeated. In fact, it may be necessary to encounter the defeats, so you can know who you are, what you can rise from, how you can still come out of it."

As you work through the adversity of this moment—at once communal, yet uniquely individual in its contours—I encourage you to create space to celebrate the accomplishments of each day, whether big or small, to trust in your capacity to overcome challenges, and to know that we are here to support you on this journey—whatever that may look like for you. Please read below my signature for more information and, on behalf of all GSSW staff and faculty, remember, you've got this and we're here for you!

With best wishes,

Deana N. Ahmad

Are you seeking COVID-19 Updates?

- DU: Please visit DU's COVID-19 website for updates from the University of Denver, including FAQs for students, health and prevention resources, and messages from DU leadership.

- GSSW: Please visit the GSSW Student Resource Portal for updates from GSSW, including student support resources, virtual drop-in hours across teams, and virtual health, wellness, and engagement opportunities.

Are you seeking mental health support?

- It's okay to ask for help. All degree seeking students at DU have free, 24/7 access to tele-mental health support through DU's My SSP: Student Support Program. To learn more and get started, please use these instructions to download the mobile app or use this link to access a complete video tutorial.
- The DU Health and Counseling Center provides many tele-medical and mental health services, including crisis and after-hours support. All University of Denver students have access to free crisis services at the HCC, regardless of insurance coverage (303-871-2205).

Are you seeking help navigating challenges in or out of the classroom? Would you benefit from getting connected to DU supports?

- Student Outreach & Support is a University resource where trained staff members ensure that students are connected to appropriate campus resources, have a plan of action to meet their goals, and learn how to navigate challenging situations. Activate these services by completing an SOS referral for yourself or any DU student in need.
- The DU Disability Services Program can assist with any needs or inquiries regarding accommodations and related DSP resources. They can be reached at 303-871-3241 or dsp@du.edu.
- The DU Veterans Services Office offers support to all active duty and veteran students. They can be reached at 303-871-4831 or veterans@du.edu.
- Review the "Fall Quarter 2020 Resource Guide for Denver Campus Students" posted on the GSSW Student Resource Portal > COVID-19 Updates tab > Student Supports and Resources > Resources for Denver Campus Students. If you have suggestions about resources that would be helpful to include, please add them here.

Are you seeking space for community-building or engagement opportunities during these times?

- The "COVID-19 Updates" tab of the GSSW Student Resource Portal, has an entire section dedicated to virtual health, wellness, and community engagement opportunities.

Whether through yoga or meditation, cooking lessons, art and culture, learning webinars, or virtual recreation and travel, there are many ways for students to connect to the community and to one another.

- Also, during these times, all are welcome to join DU Virtual Events, including:
  - DU Student Affairs and Inclusive Excellence programming,
  - DU Student Engagement events, as well as
  - identity-based programming through the DU Cultural Center, including student events for LGBTQ+ communities, communities of color, and more. Events can be found online via their Facebook and Instagram pages, and are also posted on the GSSW Student Resource Portal.

Are you seeking to get in touch with one of our student-serving teams?

- Many GSSW teams—including Academic Affairs, Career Services, Registrar, Professional Advising, and Student Engagement—have established regular, virtual office hours to support you. For more details, please visit the “Contact Us” tab of the GSSW Student Resource Portal.

Are you seeking emergency support resources?

- Please visit the “Resources for all GSSW Students” section of the GSSW Student Resource Portal to learn more about resources that may be available to help support you.

Remember, all the aforementioned resources, and many more, can be found on the “COVID-19 Updates” tab of the GSSW Student Resource Portal. We encourage you to bookmark this 24/7 resource and refer to it as often as needed, in addition to monitoring your du.edu email accounts regularly.

You received this message because you are a member of the DU network.
