

From: GSSW Academic Affairs
Subject: [col-sw-stu-MSW-concentration] Winter Course Additions & Updates
Date: Tuesday, November 24, 2020 12:31:49 PM

Dear Denver Campus Concentration & Advanced Standing Students,

We have reviewed registration enrollments for Winter Quarter, and we write to share the updates in course offerings now available to you:

Added Concentration Courses:

- SOWK 4752: Trauma Informed Assessment & Interventions (Section1, CRN: 6502) on-campus on Mondays 8:00 - 9:30 am in Craig 284 with Professor Rose Johnson
- SOWK 4760: Resource Development & Fundraising (Section 1, CRN: 6453) online on Mondays 3:00 - 4:30 pm with Professor Benjamin Robb

Cancelled Concentration Courses, due to low enrollment:

- SOWK 4330: Assessment of Mental Health in Adults (Section 1, CRN 5815). Other sections available with open seats in Winter Quarter. Will be offered again in Spring Quarter
- 1 credit Special Topics Research Courses will be moved to Spring Quarter and offered as 3 credit courses:
 - SOWK 4990: Spc Topics Research Dissemination for Public Impact
 - SOWK 4990: Spc Topics Introduction to Human Centered Design for Evaluation and Program Development
 - SOWK 4990: Spc Topics PhotoVoice as Intervention & Research

If you have advising or registration questions, please contact your faculty advisor, or join the GSSW Academic Affairs or GSSW Registrar team during their office hours, as described on the Contact Us page within the GSSW Student Resource Portal.

Congratulations on finishing Fall Quarter. We hope you rest, stay connected, and stay healthy during the winter interterm.

Sincerely,

Adela Smith, Registrar, GSSW

Kate Ross, Denver Campus MSW Program Director

Leslie Hasche, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

You received this message because you are a member of the DU network.