International Studies and Public Policy Internship Newsletter

Let's get fancy.

The year is 2035. You're at Buckingham Palace along with other distinguished members of your field. Prince William stands to make a speech (will Harry and Meghan be there? Who knows!) but you can't quite focus because you're trying to figure out WHY THERE ARE SO MANY FORKS! Can you just eat whenever? How many courses can you expect? Your professional reputation is on the line and all you can think of is "pinky up, Spongebob!"

Don't let this happen to you!

Learn the finer side of professionalism with a three course dinner at DU! Sign up for the Etiquette Dinner on February 11. Students will have the opportunity to learn the basics of dining etiquette while enjoying a 3-course meal and gaining tips and connections from alumni table hosts and staff presenters. Business professional attire is requested. Check in begins at 5:30 with the program and dinner starting at 6:00pm. If you have dietary restrictions, please email Mary Michael Hawkins at mhawkins@du.edu by Monday, January 27th. Requests after this date cannot be guaranteed.
