

BREAKING GROUND

International Studies and Public Policy Internship Newsletter

Courses not keeping you scary busy? Looking to spook up your social life?

Halloween festivities, Week Seven assignments...there's a lot on your to-do list. But don't let that keep you from trying out these awesome student groups!

- African Student United: The mission of ASU is to create a space to celebrate, educate, and participate in the understanding of the many rich, diverse cultures of Africa. Through African cultural events, it will introduce multiple features of African food, dance, music, etc. This organization's purpose is to serve African students and its allies at the University of Denver to create an inclusive institution. Their Taste of Africa event is 25 October, from 6-8pm at Craig Hall 120
- Doctors Without Borders: The Doctors Without Borders Student Chapter aims to raise awareness of and support for the victims of global sociopolitical violence, environmental catastrophes, and epidemics by fundraising, educating, and advocating on behalf of the chapter's parent organization, Doctors Without Borders. The chapter works to engage the DU community in Doctors Without Borders' international collaborative mission to bring medical and public health aid to those who need it most in the world.

IN THIS ISSUE

- Student Orgs
- Upcoming Events
- Featured Internships
- Spotlight on... Paid Jobs!

- DU Model United Nations: The DU MUN team aims to help students gather a greater understanding and appreciation for global issues. Students involved with DU MUN experience both sides of the MUN world: the team debates across the nation and also assumes the leadership and administrative role of MUN with the annual high school conference.

Contact baints@du.edu to set up an internship advising appointment

UPCOMING EVENTS

Colorado Information Analysis Center (CIAC) Career Conversations

Tuesday, October 29, 2019

12:00pm - 1:30pm

Sie Complex, Room 1020

The Josef Korbel Office of Career and Professional Development would like to invite you to our Career Conversations with CIAC. CIAC focuses on preventing acts of terrorism, taking an all-crimes, all-hazard approach. We are a centralized resource that gathers, analyzes and disseminates all-hazards information to private sector, local, state, tribal, and federal stakeholders throughout Colorado and the United States. Lunch will be provided. Please contact korbeltcareers@du.edu for dietary restrictions.

Please visit PCO to register for and/or find more information for this event. Registration closes 24 October.

Connecting DU: Careers in Policy, Politics, & Campaigns

Tuesday, October 29, 2019

4:30pm - 6:30pm

Anderson Academic Commons -
Special Events Room 290

Interested in learning more about careers in Policy, Politics, & Campaigns? Attend this Connecting DU event to learn from alumni experts in the field. Start building your professional network at a fun and engaging event while learning what it is like to work and gain experience in this industry. A brief panel discussion from experts in the field will be followed by rotating table discussions hearing from a variety of professionals in the industry.

Please visit PCO to register for and/or find more information for this event.

US Government Agencies in Denver Career Conversations

Tuesday, November 5, 2019

12:00pm - 1:30pm

Sie Complex, Room 1020

Enjoy lunch with a DU Alum now working at the Government Accountability Office (GAO) or the Department of the Interior. The GAO provides auditing, evaluation, and investigative services for the US Congress. The Department of Interior is responsible for the management and conservation of most federal lands and natural resources. Lunch will be provided. Please contact korbeltcareers@du.edu for dietary restrictions.

Please visit PCO to register for and/or find more information for this event. Registration closes 31 October.

FEATURED INTERNSHIPS

Student Trainee (International Relations)

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Deadline: 4 November 2019

This position is established under DOL's Pathways Internship Program. This is a developmental position designed to prepare the incumbent to fully perform the duties at the full performance level. Under close technical supervision, the incumbent participates as an intern under the formalized Pathways Internship Program and performs work designed to develop the application of professional knowledge of the fundamentals of international relations as it relates to accomplishing Agency international research, analysis, and evaluation efforts. For more information and to apply, visit PCO.

Research Analyst, Economic Policy Project

BIPARTISAN POLICY CENTER

Deadline: 1 November 2019

BPC is currently seeking a Research Analyst to support activities across BPC's Economic Policy Project (EPP). The Economic Policy Project is committed to developing bipartisan policy recommendations to enhance the financial prosperity and security of the American people. The project also provides timely analysis of fiscal and economic developments and proposals. Over the past several years, EPP has significantly impacted the national discussion on fiscal policy in ways that provide context for its ongoing work: For more information and to apply, visit PCO.

Advisory Intern – Cyber, Government & Public Service

DELOITTE

Deadline: 27 October 2019

As a Cyber intern, you'll work with our diverse teams of leading professionals to help design and implement solutions to some of today's toughest cyber challenges so they can achieve business growth and manage operational risk. You'll build on your foundations in Information Technology and Business to design and implement business-aligned cyber risk management programs, processes, and solutions that help clients focus their investments on key information technology risks. To learn more and apply, visit PCO.

PAYING JOBS!

Tired of living on Ramen and Peanut Butter? Check out these paid positions!

Foreign Service Office Management Specialist

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The primary responsibilities of a Foreign Service Office Management Specialist (OMS) vary greatly depending on the size of the post and the particular position to which assigned. A strong command of the English language, superior office management skills, and in-depth knowledge of office computer software are essential for this position. Applicants must be at least 20 years old and graduating this year. For more information and to apply, please check their website.

Donald M. Payne International Development Fellowship

DEADLINE: 1 NOVEMBER 2019

The Payne International Development Fellowship is a program is a highly competitive national fellowship program that identifies and trains outstanding individuals for careers in the Foreign Service of the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID). It welcomes the application of members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the field of development and those with financial need. Requirements include U.S. citizenship, plans to attend graduate school in Fall 2020, and cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher. The program includes up to $38,000 towards tuition and other fees for a two-year master's degree in fields related to international development and two summer internships. For more information and to apply, visit PayneFellows.org.

Temporary 2020 Census Workers

In the spring of 2020, the Census Bureau will launch the largest 2020 Census field operation, known as Nonresponse Follow-up, Census Takers will knock on doors to follow up with households who have not responded to the census questionnaire. Applicants can qualify for both field and office positions. The office positions, which are more limited, will be located in area census offices. The role of these offices is to recruit, select, hire, train, manage, and pay all office and field staff who work within the designated boundaries of the geographic territory assigned to the office. For more information and to apply, check the email attachment.