

Happy first week of classes!

Greetings and welcome to an unconventional year at Korbel! For those of you who do not know, this is Breaking Ground -- your first-stop on the journey of finding an internship and fixing up the ol' job application supplements. Visit this handy pdf every other week for tips, tricks, and advice on any job-related thing your quarantined mind can think of.

That being said -- Trivia Night is coming! Is this directly related to jobs? No. Can some seemingly useless knowledge help you in a job one day? Maybe! We just know how hard it is to start classes in an untraditional way, and we want to make sure that you remember you have a community here. So register HERE!

Featured Internships

Intern, Policy and Advocacy, Center on Immigration and Justice(CIJ)

Vera Institute - Remote

Vera works with others who share our vision to tackle the most pressing injustices of our day—from mass incarceration, racial disparities, and the loss of public trust in law enforcement to the unmet needs of the vulnerable, the marginalized, and those harmed by crime and violence. The primary responsibilities of the intern will be to provide outreach, policy research, advocacy and other forms of support for SAFE's work, including supporting local campaigns for public funding for deportation defense. The intern should be available a minimum of 20 hours per week, 9:30 am – 5:30 pm, from September 14 to December 11 (negotiable). In addition to this being a paid internship opportunity, Vera will gladly assist the student in working with the school or program to receive academic credit.
