UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

THE HAMPDEN ART STUDY CENTER

The Hampden Art Study Center (HASC) is DU's first facility designed for the storage, examination and preparation of artworks in an educational setting. It provides a secure climate-controlled space for access to and care of the University Art Collections. Collections management staff, including graduate students of the School of Art and Art History, now have a dedicated and secure workspace in which to research, handle, catalog, photograph and manage DU art holdings. Altogether there are over 3000 cataloged artworks located at the 4,000 square foot HASC.

Housed at the HASC includes these spaces:

- Temperature- and humidity-controlled art storage
- Art Collections Project Space
- Art Examination Seminar Room
- Photo Studio
- Prints & Drawings Study
