Disabilities / Medical Issues at DU

Symbol for disability access,
but it represents
Access for Everyone!

- Disability Services Program (DSP) works with 800 students who have all types of disabilities and medical conditions – physical, mental health, learning disabilities and ADHD. We serve undergraduate, graduate and law students in all departments.
- Types of Accommodations offered: extended time testing, note takers, wheelchair accessibility, adaptive furniture, alternate format text, sign language interpreters – other appropriate individualized accommodations based on need.
- Is proof of disability needed? Yes, appropriate documentation must be provided to DSP along with request for accommodation.
- Is there other help for students who have learning challenges and/or ADHD? Yes, the Learning Effectiveness Program (LEP) is a fee-for-service program. 303-871-2372; www.du.edu/disability/lep.
- Questions? Contact DSP at 303-871-2278/2372; dsp@du.edu.
