

AMACHE COMMUNITY OPEN HOUSE

Friday, July 6, 2018

The University of Denver (DU) Amache project will be leading a month of field research at Amache and the Amache Museum in Granada, Colorado, June 12-July 12, 2018. Although you are welcome to come visit us any time during the field season, we particularly invite former Amache internees and their families to a special community open house.

Community Open House, Summer 2016

(8 am - noon): Visit with the archaeologists and learn more about our findings this summer. Guided tours of family barracks, the reconstructed structures, and other areas of interest will be available.

(1- 4 pm): Visit the Amache museum. See the new exhibits and collections, research family history, and work with the objects found this summer. Chat with other community members to share stories and make connections.

(5 – 8 pm): Dinner for all open house participants

If you plan to attend the Community Open House, please RSVP by June 25 to Jennifer Foxcoft, Anthropology Departmental Assistant: (303) 871-2677 or jennifer.foxcoft@du.edu
