

COESA Student Conference Grant Scoring Rubric for 2022-2023

Please note that scores do not guarantee funding for COESA Student Conference Grants; they are used as a guide for the Executive Board's decisions to allocate available funds. The final decisions are at the discretion of the COESA Executive Board.

Score	Presentation	Location of conference	History of COESA funding in the previous academic year	Collaboration	Area of scholarship	Personal statement	Minimized travel costs
5	Student presented at a conference.	Student presented at or attended a conference within Colorado or a virtual conference.	No funding was received in the previous year.	Student collaborated with a both DU faculty member(s) and DU student(s).	Conference was directly connected to the student's area of scholarship.	Statement included correct grammar, spelling, and punctuation and insightful reflection on experience.	Student attended a virtual conference, had no travel/lodging costs, used public transport, or shared lodging and travel costs with other attendees, if applicable.
4		Student presented at an out-of-state conference.	Funding from the previous year was less than $150.
3	Student assisted with presentation or conference.	Student attended (but did not present at) an out-of-state conference.	Funding from the previous year was $151-300.	Student collaborated with DU faculty member(s) or DU student(s).	Conference was somewhat related to the student's area of scholarship.	Statement included acceptable grammar, punctuation, and spelling and somewhat insightful reflection.	Student shared costs of lodging or transportation with other attendees.
2		Student presented at a conference outside of the United States.	Funding from the previous year was $301-500.
1	Student did not present.	Student attended (but did not present at) a conference outside of the United States.	Funding from the previous year exceeded $500.*	Student did not collaborate with others.	Conference does not relate to the student's area of scholarship.	Statement included several errors in punctuation, spelling, or grammar and surface-level reflection only.	Student did not share costs.

*Please note that students who received the maximum $1,000 in funding from COESA in the previous year will be considered as -5 points for this category to ensure that more students have an opportunity for COESA Conference Student Grant funding.

Total points possible: 35