

Time	Action	Responsible Party
11:15-11:20	People are being seated, handing out bios and sexual assault policy information
11:20-11:25	Short presentation on prevalence of sexual harassment at DU	Nancy Reichman
11:25-11:50	Panel Discussion with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• BOSS Training Coordinator</li> <li>• BOSS Peer Educator</li> <li>• Student Leader</li> <li>• Business Representative</li> </ul> Question 1: How do you understand the role of bystanders in the context of sexual harassment and gender violence on DU's campus? What have your experiences been as a bystander or what have you observed about being a bystander? Question 2: How do you think bystander training can be improved to address issues of sexual harassment on campus?	Andi Schlut (moderator) and panelists
11:50-11:55	Introduce our framework for bystander intervention training: three-quarter course with first session discussing behaviors and actions, second session discussing microaggressions and non-critical situations, and third session discussing "rape culture".	Camila Bernaldez
11:55-12:10	Break-out sessions: We have introduced the idea of expanding bystander intervention training beyond keeping folks safe to redirecting everyday behavior and challenging attitudes. Now, we want you (the audience) to brainstorm different strategies for doing so.	Andi Schlut (moderator) and audience
12:10-12:20	Discussing ideas as a large group	Everyone
12:20-12:30	As a group, we will then make commitments to change our own actions in the ways that we discussed in our break-out sessions and larger group discussion	Everyone