ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

The Women’s College fully endorses the University of Denver’s Honor Code and the procedures put forth by the Office of Citizenship and Community Standards. Academic dishonesty—including plagiarism, cheating, and falsification of data and research—is in violation of the code and will result in a failing grade for the assignment or for the course. As student members of a community committed to academic integrity and honesty, it is your responsibility to become familiar with the DU Honor Code and its procedures (www.du.edu/honorcode).

COURSE TEXTS AND MATERIALS:

1. REQUIRED TEXT: Juana Bordas. Salsa, Soul and Spirit. San Francisco: BK (Berrett-Koehler Publishers, Inc.). 2012.

We will read this book early in the class time frame. It will provide us with a multicultural leadership model and sources for discussion.

2. REQUIRED READINGS AVAILABLE ON E-RESERVES: Michalle E. Mor Barak. Managing Diversity: Toward a Globally Inclusive Workplace. Thousand oaks, CA: Sage Publications, 3rd Edition, 2014.

- Chapter 2, Diversity Legislation in a Global Perspective: Equality and Fairness in Employment, pp. 17-53.
- Chapter 4, Global Demographic Trends: Impact on workforce Diversity, pp. 77-98.
- Chapter 5, Socioeconomic Transitions: The New Realities of the Global Workforce, pp. 99-117.

3. Additional resources as posted on Canvas

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Timely and relevant class participation in online postings and discussions as well as in face-to-face meetings (30 points for each Discussion Posting and responses)
2. Thoughtful responses to reading assignments as demonstrated in discussion postings and responses to colleagues’ postings
3. Independent or collaborative research for case study (Written Assignment Three)
4. Submission and Presentation of following three papers (Papers 100 points each; presentations 40 points each):

1. Written Assignment One will focus on your personal perceptions of diversity. Write a personal essay that responds to the general intent of questions distributed on first night of class (no more than 5 pages).
2. Written Assignment Two will focus on organizational diversity in an organization that you know about. In this paper you will (a) describe the organization using criteria described in Mor Barak, (b) evaluate the organization with respect to employment fairness and inclusion for diverse employees, (c) recommend (conceptually and/or operationally) changes in policy and practice that would help the organization achieve criteria, and (d) discuss current or projected circumstances that might contribute to or impede your suggestions from taking place.
3. Written Assignment Three will focus on multicultural leadership from a community perspective. This paper will be a case study of an individual with whom you are familiar. In the paper describe how your subject exemplifies multicultural leadership in the community, state, nation or world. Analyze how this person exemplifies multicultural leadership and why it is effective in the context where practiced. Conclude this paper with an evaluation of multicultural leadership, a thoughtful reflection about what resonates with your own leadership approach and why (or why not), and general recommendations. Please use test references to document your evaluation and recommendations with relevant journal articles, organizational information (reports or reputable web sites), and personal interviews. Include a bibliography of all sources.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Attendance is mandatory in all class sessions. Active participation in class and online discussions is also required and will be a determiner in a student's final grade. An absence, for any reason, will result in forfeiting points for in-class student presentations. These may not be made up in another class session. If an emergency arises, it is the student's responsibility to contact her instructor.

A grade of incomplete will not be granted under any circumstances.

DIVERSITY, INCLUSIVENESS, RESPECT

CWC has a core commitment to fostering a diverse learning community that is inclusive and respectful. Our diversity is reflected by differences in race, culture, age, religion, sexual orientation, socioeconomic background, and myriad other social identities and life experiences. The goal of inclusiveness, in a diverse community, encourages and appreciates expressions of different ideas, opinions, and beliefs, so that conversations and interactions that could potentially be divisive turn instead into opportunities for intellectual and personal enrichment.

A dedication to inclusiveness requires respecting what others say, their right to say it, and the thoughtful consideration of others' communication. Both speaking up AND listening are valuable tools for furthering thoughtful, enlightening dialogue. Respecting one another's individual differences is critical in transforming a collection of diverse individuals into an inclusive, collaborative and excellent learning community. Our core commitment shapes our core expectation for behavior inside and outside of the classroom.

TECHNOLOGY USE IN THE CLASSROOM

In order to create and maintain an optimal learning environment in the classroom, students should use technology appropriately as directed by the instructor for the purposes of the course. Work done on laptops, cell phones, and other devices that is not relevant to the class can hinder the process of communication and shared discussion of ideas that require full engagement by all participants.

ADA ACCOMMODATIONS

Students who require accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act must contact the instructor to discuss their needs. Failure to notify the instructor immediately may hinder the college's ability to accommodate accordingly. Students with learning disabilities should also contact the University Disability Services Program at <http://www.du.edu/studentlife/disability/>. University Disability Services houses the Learning Effectiveness Program (LEP) and the Disability Services Program (DSP).

OBSERVATION OF RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

Students wishing to observe a religious holiday not celebrated on the academic calendar may do so provided advanced written notice is given the instructor during the first two weeks of the quarter. With advanced written notice, the absence will be considered an excused absence. For additional information, contact DU's Center for Religious Services (<http://www.du.edu/crs/>).

COURSE SCHEDULE (SUBJECT TO MODIFICATION AFTER FIRST CLASS MEETING)

- NB> Please note the following requirement for the first class:
- Prior to first class meeting, Please read Bordas, pp. 1-45. Please think carefully about your experiences with diversity and the impact they have had (or are having) on you and your practice of "egalitarian pluralism" Bordas, 2012, p. 211.
- BRING AN OBJECT THAT REPRESENTS SOMETHING IMPORTANT ABOUT YOURSELF THAT YOU ARE WILLING TO SHARE WITH THE CLASS. Please read Chapter 2 carefully (pp. 23-43), reflecting upon "sankofa" and its influence upon how you identify yourself and your core values.
- Please bring your computer to class
