

Dr. Darrin Hicks

Darrin Hicks is Professor of Communication Studies and Director of Debate at DU. His teaching and research focuses on collaborative governance, public deliberation and political argumentation. In addition to publishing numerous articles on these topics, he has worked closely with Federal and State agencies, as well as community-based non-profits, on issues concerning collaborative governance and its effects on health and education outcomes.