

Fred Cheever Bio

Fred Cheever is a Professor of Law at the Sturm College of Law and a co-director (with retired Colorado Supreme Court Justice Gregory Hobbs) of the College of Law's nationally ranked Environmental & Natural Resources Law Program. Fred was the founding Chair of the University of Denver Sustainability Council and is also its current chair. Fred is the co-author of a popular Natural Resources Law Casebook and writes extensively about biodiversity and land conservation. Between 2009 in 2014, he served as Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at the College of Law.