

Divest DU Student Presenters - October 6, 2016

Lori Scott

Lori Scott is a senior majoring in Gender and Women's Studies and Spanish with minors in Leadership Studies and Sociology. She is an Institutional Coordinator for Divest DU as well as the co-president of Feminist Student Alliance. Through the Center for Advocacy, Prevention, and Empowerment (CAPE) and the Pioneer Leadership Program (PLP), New Era Colorado, Planned Parenthood Votes Colorado and more, Lori has been a social justice activist on campus and in the community.

Carly LeRoy

Carly LeRoy is a second year student at DU studying Environmental Science. She recently transitioned to being an Institutional Coordinator for Divest DU. Carly was an EcoRep this year for the center for sustainability, and she is also employed at the Driscoll Student Center.

Callyn Gonzalez

Callyn Gonzalez is a senior Geography major with minors in Sustainability and Political Science. She joined Divest DU in 2015 and now works as an Internal Coordinator. She also currently works with 350 Action. As an environmental activist she hopes to spend her life acting on and educating people about climate change to create a better future for us all.

Lilly Gross

Lilly Gross is a sophomore here at the University of Denver. She is a psychology major with minors in sustainability and Hebrew. Working as an internal coordinator for Divest DU, an employee at The Front Porch Cafe, and working with various clubs such as Interfaith Advocates and Hillel, she works to bring cohesion between all people and places.
