

First-Year Graduate Experience

Faculty Advisors

During the first year of graduate study, each student will be assigned to one faculty advisor. Students may also designate their advisors at any point in the graduate program. The Director of Graduate Studies also serves as a default advisor for all students at all times. Use this form to indicate your first, second, and third choice for your first-year faculty advisor. To view faculty profiles, visit this page, <http://www.du.edu/ahss/english/faculty-staff/index.html>, and also follow the links for each faculty listing.
