MEET YOUR ADVISOR KIERAN HUBBER

Hi! My name is Kieran and I'm a second year MA International Studies student here at Korbel. I'm also getting a certificate in humanitarian assistance. Originally, I am from Missoula, Montana, but I came down to Colorado for my undergrad at CU Boulder where I majored in international affairs. I studied abroad twice while at CU, in Amman and Prague, and after graduating I spent two years teaching English in Spain. From Spain I went to Indonesia with the Peace Corps for 18 months before being evacuated in the spring of 2020. Some of my interests and hobbies include hiking, camping and (cross-country)skiing. When I can't get out of town I like hunkering down at home with a book or a show. I'm excited to meet all of you and see where you're headed!

please don't hesitate to reach out at

STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIP

Studying abroad can be expensive and to help with the cost, First Trip is offering study abroad scholarships!!

First Trip values the philosophy of global citizenship. Many people see the world as a member of one nation or society, however, global citizens view the world through an international lens. We believe the true path to global citizenship is initiated once we immerse ourselves into another culture far different from our own.

First Trip may provide funding for individuals traveling to countries ranked lower than Very High on the United Nations' annual Human Development Index (HDI). As the HDI is updated annually, only countries whose human development have been ranked as High, Medium, or Low on the latest HDI are considered eligible destinations by First Trip. You are encouraged to review the FAQs page for more information.

Currently, scholarships are awarded up to $1,500.00 and are determined by applicant need, destination, and availability of funds. For more information and to apply, visit First Trip.
