

STUDENT GROUP DESCRIPTIONS & CONTACTS (2022-2023)

Student Group Name	Description	Contact Name DU Email and/or Phone Number
Active Duty Club (Military)	The Active-Duty (Military) Student Group is an organization for active- duty military members, veterans, and individuals curious about joining the military who are currently enrolled in the Korbel School of International Studies. The purpose of this organization is to create a network for military members to meet people of similar background, help integrate people into the Korbel community, and provide mentorship to help them navigate the academic environment at the University of Denver.	Jason Landis (President) Jason.landis@du.edub Darrell Guthrie (Vice President) Darrell.guthrie@du.edu
Climate Conscious Corps (CCC)	The Climate Conscious Corps (CCC) is a student led group dedicated to providing a platform for students interested in climate- and sustainability-related issues, both locally and globally. We connect students, faculty, and staff across DU as well as the greater Denver community. CCC provides educational, professional development, volunteer, and social opportunities throughout each quarter. Follow us on Instagram to learn more: @climatecorps.korbel.	Emily Slusser (President) Emily.slusser@du.edu Lexi Kilbane (Treasurer) Lexi.kilbane@du.edu
Council on Economic Affairs (CEA)	CEA is a professional and social development organization directed at Global Economic Affairs (GEA) degree students but open to all Korbel graduate students. We host networking events with Korbel alumni, professional events in concert with the Office of Career and Professional Development, and social events to connect	Hannah Wolf (President) Hannah.M.Wolf@du.edu Brandon James (Treasurer; Communications Liaison) Brandon.James@du.edu

	Korbel graduate students and build camaraderie.
DU Immigrant & Refugee Rights Colectivo	The DU Immigrant and Refugee Rights Colectivo is a Korbel organization associated with the new Center for Immigration Policy and Research committed to coalition building, education, advocacy, and research on campus in the greater Denver community. We carry this out through our social media presence, our weekly mailers, events we host throughout the year, and our regular digest publication. We are excited to connect those who are passionate about social justice, immigration and refugee issues with hands-on ways to get involved.	Ashlee Schutte (President) Ashlee.Schutte@du.edu Rute Belachew (Treasurer) Rute.Belachew@du.edu
Korbel Asylum Project (KAP)	Students involved in KAP work with immigration attorneys and their clients to provide expert country conditions reports for clients' asylum cases. Students gain research and scholarship skills by engaging with asylum seekers and their attorneys, directly contributing to protecting human rights.	Yeosub Yang (President) Yeosub.yang@du.edu Saba Ismail (Treasurer) Saba.Ismail@du.edu
Korbel Graduate Student Association (KGSA)	The purpose of the Graduate Student Association shall be: to represent the collective interest of the JKSSIS student body in all policy-making activities; to provide opportunities for social interaction among the student body, outside the academic environment of JKSSIS; to provide financial and logistical support to individual students or groups to further enhance the classroom experience; to facilitate activities that broaden the academic experience outside the classroom; and to liaise with graduate units throughout the University of Denver.	Liam Palmbach (President) Liam.Palmbach@du.edu Bailey Howe (Social Chair) Bailey.Howe@du.edu
Korbel Graduate Students of Color (KGSOC)	A space for Korbel graduate students of color to build and sustain a supportive	Alexander Mangala Munuma (President) alexandre.mangalamunuma@du.edu

	community that contributes to their academic development, social growth, and well-being.	Johnny Valdez (Co-President) johnny.valdez@du.edu
Korbel International Students Organization (KISO)	KISO is the student organization for all the international students at Korbel. It is a common platform for all the international students to come together, discuss issues related to international students and act as a group to resolve them. It is also the place for social interaction for all international students at Korbel, thereby creating a place of congregation and community	Ayam Shrestha (President) Ayam.shrestha@du.edu Shreya Subedi (Social Chair) Shreya.Subedi@du.edu
Korbel Public Policy Student Association (KPPSA)	The Josef Korbel Public Policy Student Association is for those studying public policy to come together to discuss current policy issues through books, public speakers and group discussions.	Dr. Naazneen Barma (Faculty Advisor) Naazneen.barma@du.edu If you are interested in a leadership role for this group please reach out to Dr. Barma
Queerbel	The Queerbel student alliance is a forum for LGBTQ+ students and their allies. We strive to not only incorporate queer issues into international studies and discourse, but to also advocate on behalf of Korbel students who fall within the spectrum of queer identities. We aim to foster inclusivity within Korbel and the greater DU student community.	Alex Kellon (President/Treasurer) alex.kellon@du.edu
Returned Peace Corps Volunteer Society (RPCVs) – pending name change	A student group hosted by a Returned Peace Corps Volunteers (RPCV) at the University of Denver. A way to connect with each other while in grad school and promote the understanding between different cultures. During the school year we lead opportunities in building social networks with fellow peers and other RPCV's of Colorado, DU students and alumni, supporting career development,	Justin Dorey (President/Treasurer) Justin.Dorey@du.edu

	promoting volunteer, internship, and Cultural exchange opportunities.
Social Justice Solidarity Series (SJSS)	The Social Justice Solidarity Series operates out of the Josef Korbel School of International Affairs and exists to combat issues of systemic exclusion at the University of Denver.	Micaela Parker (President/Treasurer) Micaela.Parker@du.edu
Students for Africa (SfA)	Students for Africa is a Josef Korbel School for International Studies (JKSIS) - based group at the University of Denver comprised of students and faculty committed to furthering awareness of African societies and issues to the greater community, domestically and abroad. Students for Africa (SfA) is a gateway organization dedicated to providing and facilitating educational opportunities and connections for DU students and the greater Denver community. SfA advocates and sponsors Africa-centered applied research, coursework, cultural/political events and partnerships with African-focused organizations and representatives. SfA contributes to the betterment of African peoples based upon their felt needs and an acknowledgement of the fundamental dignity of all humankind.	Natalie Impraim (President) Natalie.impraim@du.edu Lindsey Mandolini (Treasurer) Lindsey.mandolini@du.edu