INSTRUCTOR(S): Douglas County Sheriff Tony Spurlock, Victim Advocate Andrea Bradbury, Detective Chris Stadler

Specific Lesson/Module: Human Trafficking and Drug Trafficking

Scheduled Dates of Training: January 13th and 27th, February 3rd and 10th.

Scheduled Course Time: 2 Hour time blocks on each date above

Performance Objectives: At the end of this session students will:

1. Have an overview of human and drug trafficking.
2. Understand the impact of trafficking from a political and economical standpoint.
3. Understand how human trafficking and drug trafficking intersect
4. Have heard testimonials from actual trafficking survivors
5. Be exposed to real case studies from drug and human trafficking investigations

Methods of Instruction: Discussion, Lecture / Videos

Instructor Materials: Lecture, Powerpoint and Handouts