The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) from the University of Denver is an educational program designed for those age 50+ who wish to pursue lifelong learning in a relaxed, non-competitive atmosphere. There are no tests, no grades, no academic requirements - just a desire to learn. Due to the impacts of COVID-19, we have launched an exciting online initiative for the Spring 2020 term so you can continue your adult learning during this challenging time.

- Spring 2020 Online Term runs from April through June. Classes vary from one to eight weeks and are Tuesday - Thursday, 9:30-11:30 a.m., and 1:00-3:00 p.m., with a variety of exceptions.
- Classes are priced individually depending on their length ($10-$80 per class).
- Classes cover academic subjects in history, literature, music, philosophy, film, current events, technology, science, writing, social issues, and more.
- Space in all classes will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis, with no wait lists.

CATALOG POSTED and ON-LINE REGISTRATION begin April 6, 2020

Zoom training sessions are April 6-7 to help you get up to speed!

Get more information, access the catalog, find Zoom info, and register for classes at:

http://portfolio.du.edu/ollionline