

Breaking Ground

International Studies and Public Policy Internship Newsletter

In This Issue

- Who are we?? Pt. 2
- Upcoming Events
- Featured Internships
- Spotlight on..campus employment!

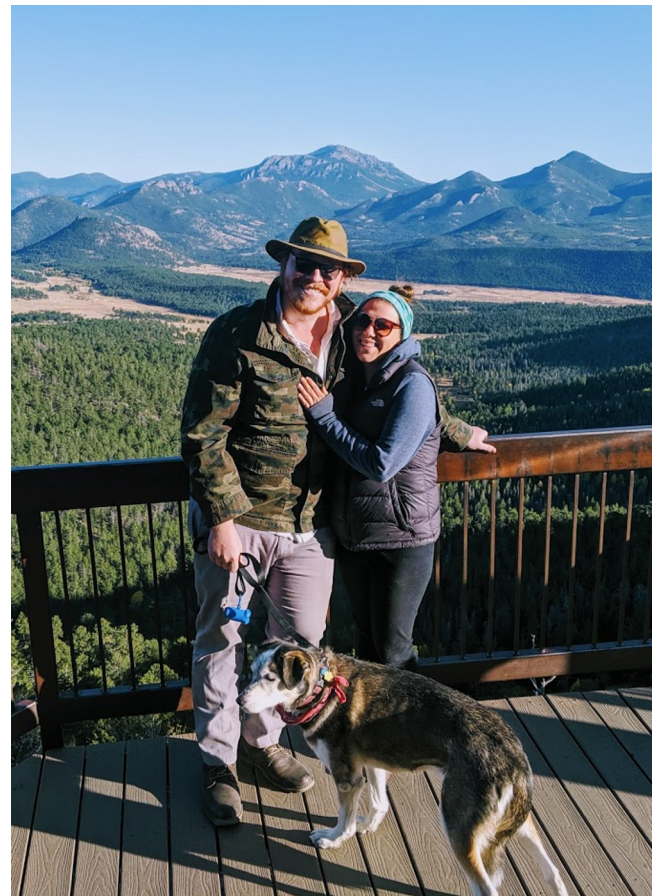

Hello! My name is David and I am a second year Master's student in the International Studies program here at Korbel. My specialization is in international security and global environmental change & adaptation in South Asia. I can't wait to meet you and learn more about your career goals and interests!

I'm originally from west Michigan and went to Michigan State University (Go Green!) where I studied Comparative Cultures & Politics and World Religions. I've worked in environmental nonprofits, government relations, in federal and local government positions, as a political campaign manager, an international recruiter, and most recently as a researcher and as an adviser for all of you!

In my free time I like being outdoors, napping with my dog, listening to live music, and eating spicy food.

Meet David! Your other Internship Coordinator

Last week you met Mari, one of our two internship coordinators, and a lot of you reached out to say hi and make an appointment! But now, it's time to make sure David gets some attention too. Introducing David:

Contact baints@du.edu to set up an appointment to talk internships, hiking, and environmental impacts!

Upcoming Events

CIA Simulation

Thursday, October 10, 2019

2:00pm - 3:30pm

Sie Complex, Room 1020

Registration closes TODAY (9 October) for the annual CIA simulation. A representative from the CIA will host a simulation from the Directorate of Operations (DO) side. This interactive and dynamic simulation allows students to understand more about the duties, analytical skills and strategic thinking and life of a DO Officer. If you're interested in security and intelligence at all, this is the event for you! Please note, participants must be US citizens.

Please visit PCO to register for and/or find more information for this event

Social Impact Networking Event

Tuesday, October 15, 2019

5:00pm - 7:00pm

Sie Complex, Room 1020

Meet alumni from local organizations and companies that focus on community outreach, development and improving the lives of community members--either nationally or internationally. The goal is to create connections for potential volunteers, future interns and possibly future jobs! Meet representatives from AfricaAid, Water for People, RBI Strategies, and more!

Please visit PCO to register for and/or find more information for this event. Registration closes 11 October.

Korbel Career Conversations with One Earth Future

Tuesday, October 22, 2019

12:00pm - 1:30pm

Sie Complex, Room 1020

Enjoy lunch with a DU Alum now working at One Earth Future. One Earth Future has a vision of Peace Through Governance and their mission is to catalyze systems that eliminate root causes of war.

They have programs ranging from Oceans Beyond Piracy to Research with Think Tanks.. Lunch will be provided. Please contact korbelcareers@du.edu for dietary restrictions.

Please visit PCO to register for and/or find more information for this event. Registration closes 18 October.

Featured Internships

Brandeberry McKenna Public Affairs

Deadline: Rolling

Brandeberry McKenna Public Affairs, a Denver lobbying firm, is looking for interested undergrad or graduate students to assist our firm during the 2020 Legislative Session (January 8- May 15). They are specifically looking for those interested in learning about State government and the legislative process. The position would be in Denver, and include monitoring and reporting on legislative committees of interest, bill tracking, attending house and senate floor debates and helping with legislative events. The position is writing intensive. This is a great position for those who are interested in a future career in public affairs or policy work. The position would be about 24 hours a week but could be more depending on the session workload. Please contact Megan Wagner at, megan@bbmk.com. The position pays 16 dollars per hour and includes parking.

Public Policy and International Affairs Junior Summer Insitute

Deadline: 1 November 2019

The PPIA Junior Summer Institute (JSI) Fellowship Program is a rigorous academic graduate-level preparation program for undergraduate juniors committed to public service careers. This fully-funded opportunity equips fellows with the knowledge and skills they will need to succeed in graduate school and ultimately, in influential roles serving the public good. The purpose of the JSI Fellowship is to prepare students to obtain a Master's or joint degree, in public policy, public administration, international affairs, or a related field. Our alumni network has the opportunity to receive financial support for their graduate school education if they attend one of the programs in our Graduate School Consortium. Note: this position is only for students with Junior standing. To learn more or apply, please go here.

World Denver

Deadline: Rolling

World Denver is now accepting applications for their spring internships! The available positions are International Exchange Programs Intern, Development and Communications Intern, Events Intern, and Operations Intern. To apply for an internship, students should complete an application, attached to the email, and email it to careers@worlddenver.org, along with a current resume and writing sample, which may be a statement of interest, cover letter, or academic paper. To learn more, please visit their website.

Spotlight on...

On-Campus Jobs!

Looking for a paid position close to home? Look no further!

Student Customer Service Representative

OFFICE OF CAREER AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT -- KORBEL SCHOOL

We invite undergraduate students interested in working in our fast-paced busy Office to apply for our front-line customer service position. Undergraduate student employees have access to the career resources and services otherwise exclusively for Josef Korbel School graduate students and alumni. This is a dynamic position that allows students to gain first-hand experience with customer service skills and higher education offices. We are searching for an enthusiastic, globally-minded individual who wants to learn more about the Josef Korbel school and the career opportunities within that field. To apply, submit resume to KobelCareers@du.edu indicating that you're applying for the "Student Customer Service Representative" position.

Program Assistant

HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM -- KORBEL SCHOOL

The Humanitarian Assistance Program at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies seeks a program assistant. Tasks could include budget management, event coordination, program development, research, and communications. Must be organized, detail-oriented, reliable, flexible, self-motivated, professional, and able to work as part of a team. Must be familiar with Microsoft Office. Must have strong writing and interpersonal communication skills. Background in database management, blogging, web design, and/or desktop publishing would be highly valued but not required. Interested applicants should send an email expression of interest and resume to haprog@du.edu. Please express which, if any, of the above areas best meet your skills and interests.

Official Disclaimer: The BA Program at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies neither endorses, nor recommends any particular program, organization, opportunity, project, or event, and we do not offer any guarantee as to information, products or any other services.