Re Faculty Grievance Policy

Hi all-- I hope that everyone is having a good summer. Some members of our group are having serious workplace issues and I continue to get calls from faculty concerned about the quality of chair and dean supervision. So, can those of us who are interested and available meet sometime this summer to talk about these issues? The Faculty Senate has been interested in clarifying the faculty grievance policy and I think the AAUP chapter could help jump start that project. We might draft something that describes the sequence of steps for resolving a grievance, and that also reminds administrators of their obligation to see that due process is carried out. If you're around please let me know what days/times would be best to meet and I'll pull us together. If you want to be removed from this AAUP chapter list let me know. Thanks!
