Undergraduates Needed: Korbel Mentorship Program!

The Korbel Mentorship Program (KMP) aims to bring together graduate and undergraduate students at Korbel through mentorship. One graduate student will be paired with 2-3 undergraduate students' inquiries through email or phone.

Participants will attend two group meetings per year that will include a free meal to chat and connect. Additionally, Korbel alumni will participate as guest speakers and offer professional advice at these meetings. Participants will have the freedom to connect according to their individual needs. Furthermore, participants may be eligible for gift cards or Korbel/DU apparel.

Undergraduates can find advice on the following through KMP:

- Graduate School Application/Admission
- Professional Opportunities/Networking
 - Professional/Experiential Advice
