Description:
We have a limited amount of funding available to support Korbel MA students’ intensive language study abroad.

Program requirements and information:
• The experience must be a structured university or language school program/curriculum for language instruction located outside of the United States. It is not required to be credit-based
• Students are responsible for researching and confirming all details related to the organization, quality of instruction, and travel, including health, safety and security preparation
• Award amounts are dependent upon student demand and funds availability. Previous award averages have been $500
• Reimbursable expenses include program tuition and fees for language instruction, and related travel and housing expenses
• Reimbursements for individual instruction will not be considered
• Students may apply for and receive language funding once

Eligibility requirements include:
• Must be a current student enrolled in a Korbel MA degree program in good academic and judicial standing
• Minimum GPA of 3.0 and no incompletes on transcript
• Through the online application’s budget, students must demonstrate financial need for the funding

Notifications & Reimbursements:
• Awards are processed as a reimbursement upon submission of official receipts for funds spent for the tuition and official certification or letter of completion from the School (In English)
• Students will be notified of the award decision within two weeks of application via email and are expected to notify the Office of Student Affairs if they accept the award
• Cancellation or non-completion (on the part of the student or the organization) of the language instruction automatically revokes the award
• Final documents outlined above must be submitted within two weeks of completing language classes
• DU does not provide advice regarding tax implications of awards. Students are to consult with their tax professional for advice and information

To apply:
• Applications are accepted year-round, with a priority funding deadline of May 8 for summer. Applications are reviewed by a committee, and are awarded based on eligibility, merit of the proposal, and funds availability
• To apply, please submit the online application HERE

Please Note:
• Language study abroad does not guarantee proficiency requirements are met. Please see the MA Handbook for more details

Questions?
Email isgrad@du.edu