ALL STUDENTS

ANNOUNCEMENTS

JKSIS launches @Korbel
Whereas the Korbel Quick is geared specifically toward INTS student events and relevant updates, the @Korbel weekly newsletter will focus on School-wide news and events that are of interest to and open to the entire community. Email Korbel.Comms@du.edu to have your event included for School-wide distribution.

Don’t forget to keep your contact information current
Please ensure that your preferred email address is on file and up-to-date in PioneerWeb (“Student” tab > Student Information > Personal > Set Your Preferred Email Address). Email is the official method of communication at the University of Denver and all official correspondence will be sent to your preferred email address.

Winter Quarter 2016 Drop Deadlines
- Last day to drop a course WITHOUT approval from the instructor is Monday, 02/15/16 (W assigned)
- Last day to drop a course WITH approval from the instructor is Thursday, 02/25/16 (W assigned)
- The Office of the Registrar’s Academic, Registration & Billing Calendar is available and accessible online 24/7

How to check your graduation application status
If you recently applied to graduate and want to verify the status of your application, please login to PioneerWeb > click on the “Student” tab > and navigate to the “View Advising Profile” link in the “Advising and Registration Tools” section. In your profile, you will find a section entitled “Graduation Information,” which will list your graduation status and any active applications you may have. In the far left column, there is also a link entitled “View Application to Graduate” for additional information.

Health and Counseling Center “Let’s Talk” Drop-In Counseling
This free resource is available to all students and provides confidential consultation with an HCC counselor during regular walk-in hours. Please visit the Let’s Talk site for more information.
ANNOUNCEMENTS (CONTINUED)

Poster Abstracts Submissions Wanted
For the APHA 2016 Annual Meeting & Expo (Denver, CO, October 29-November 2, 2016), the Spirit of 1848 Social Justice & Public Health Student Poster Session is having an OPEN CALL FOR ABSTRACTS for posters that highlight the intersection between social justice and public health from a historical, theoretical, epidemiological, ethnographic, and/or methodological perspective (whether quantitative or qualitative). Abstracts are due on FEBRUARY 22, 2016. Submissions are welcomed by students (undergraduate and graduate) that are focused on work linking issues of social justice and public health, with a particular emphasis on work pertaining to human rights and health. Abstracts should focus on furthering understanding and action to address the ways that social inequality harms, and social equity improves, the public’s health. Examples of social inequality include inequitable social divisions within societies based on social class, race/ethnicity, nativity, Indigenous and immigrant status, gender, and sexuality, as well as inequitable relations between nations and geographical regions. For more information, click here.

EVENTS

Environment and Consultation in the Brazilian Democratic Developmental State - February 15, 2016 - noon, BMC 301: Dr. Kathryn Hochstetler, CIGI Chair of Governance in the Americas at Balsillie School of International Affairs and Professor of Political Science at the University of Waterloo, will discuss pressing environmental issues facing Latin America with a focus on the Brazilian state. More details and RSVP information here. To see the flyer, visit our Portfolio site.

2016 CONFERENCE ON TIBET “RIGHTS, REALITY, AND THE LAW” - February 17th, 5:30-8:00pm, Sturm Law 165: Please join the DU Sturm College of Law and its associates for an opportunity to gain insight and discuss on the current state of affairs in Tibet. The first part of the discussion will be centered around the rights of protestors and their ability to protest, including the protest environment, the incidence of torture, and the ability for self-determination. Following this discussion light will be shed on Tibet’s political and legal response to protest

Can We Defeat ISIS - February 17, 2016 - 7:00pm, The Newman Center, University of Denver: Can We Defeat ISIS? Is a panel discussion featuring U.S. Senator Cory Gardner and Graeme Wood, Contributing Editor at The Atlantic, moderated by Samuel J. Rascoff, Professor at NYU School of Law. The panelist will discuss the rise of ISIS, their threat, and U.S. policy options to defeat the. Tickets are complimentary with a small service charge and can be received following this link.
Coffee with Post Docs - February 18, 2016 - 2:00pm, BMC 142: Post Doc Fellows will be there to speak about the research they are doing on Latin America. Join this informal conversation to learn about their research, methodology and future plans.

Am I the Film - February 19, 2016 - 6:00pm, Lindsay Auditorium: Examine how people wrestle with concepts of race, complexion, gender, and heritage, as well as the significance and meaning of transnational identities. The film critically engages the complexity of the African diaspora. Free food and refreshments will be provided.

Reverse Career Fair - February 16, 2016 - 5:00pm, Driscoll Ballroom: Come allow your student organization and its members to share their talent with recruiters looking to hire DU students for internships. Student groups will be put in a drawing for $100, $150, $250. Register your group now!

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES

Do you want to win $500?

The Knoebel Institute for Healthy Aging, a newly formed interdisciplinary institute at DU, is inviting our students to design its logo by March 1. Guidelines are: Logo should reflect the institute’s vision: Quality in Life, Wellness and Community of older adults; design requirements: minimum print size 1.5 inches|online 100 pixels. Logo may be used for events, signage and social media. The winner receives a $500 prize and an opportunity for global industry recognition. Runners-up receive prizes as well. Students should submit their logo to: Aging@du.edu.

Paid Internship with The Colorado Department of Transportation

An internship opportunity with the Colorado Department of Transportation will be available for students interested in the day-to-day state government operations. The internship is expected to begin on April 1. Furthermore, the internship is paid for selected students.
ALL STUDENTS

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES (CONTINUED)

UN Student Essay Contest

Airfare, Room and Meals will be provided by ELS Educational Services, Inc to, from, and in New York City. Write an original essay (2,000 words or less) discussing global citizenship and cultural understanding and the role that multilingual ability can play in fostering these. The essay should reflect your personal, academic, cultural and national context. Essays must be written in an official language of the United Nations that is not your first language or primary language of instruction during your primary or secondary education. Submit your essay by Thursday, March 31, 2016 at 11:59 pm. Time and for more information click here.

PhD Candidates

The School of Criminology & Justice Studies at the University of Massachusetts Lowell seeks to fill one interdisciplinary position in Security Studies at the rank of Assistant/Associate/Full Professor for September, 2016. The candidate may be hired with tenure if he/she currently holds tenure at another institution. Applicants must hold a Ph.D. in Criminology, Criminal Justice, Political Science, International Relations, Psychology, or another field relevant to Security Studies. Candidates with research specialization in mass atrocities, political violence, national security policy, cybersecurity or countering violent extremism are strongly encouraged to apply. Visit the job opening here.

Princeton University Journal of Public and International Affairs Submission:

Do you want to represent Korbel by getting published in the country’s leading student-run journal of international studies? Now in its 27th year of publication, Princeton University's Journal of Public and International Affairs is accepting submissions now through Sunday, February 7th. The Journal accepts policy papers and articles on all topics related to international studies, including security, development, U.S. domestic policy, and economics. Papers should be approximately 6,000 words and articles should be around 1,500 words. Submissions that provide concrete policy recommendations are particularly sought after. To be considered for publication, submissions should be sent via email to jpio@princeton.edu and received no later than Sunday, February 7th. For more information on submission guidelines, please visit this link.
Announcements

Applications for the Korbel in Geneva program will be open until Friday, February 19th. To apply, you can find the online application here and email your resume to Kendra Grimm, Student Affairs Coordinator.

The Cape Office is offering two focus groups on Monday, February 15 at 6:30PM-7:30PM and Wednesday, February 17: 11AM-12:00PM to better understand what the unique education and training needs are for graduate students prepare them to combat gender violence. Lunch or dinner will be provided! To gain more information or RSVP, please email Kayla Ham.

Events

Perspectives from the ground: the refugee crisis in Greece - February 18, 2016 - noon, BMC 301: David Bopp will share his recent experiences on the ground in Lesvos, Greece. He will discuss his direct work with and the experiences of the refugees he encountered, the variety of actors involved, the politics found in Moria camp, and the frustration of suddenly being restricted from providing medical assistance. For more info and to RSVP: please click here.

Study Abroad in Malawi - February 17, 2016 - 12:30pm. BMC 141: A three week graduate study abroad in Malawi will provide students with opportunities for cross cultural exchange, applied research, and community development experience in the context of WASH (Water, Sanitation and Hygiene). Although geared to students with an interest in the water or public health sectors, please feel free to email Emily.vanhouweling@du.edu for more information.

External opportunities

Volunteer Opportunity at El Centro Humanitario: El Centro’s Direct Action Team is always looking for committed volunteers to spend a few hours a week helping victims of wage theft recoup their lost wages. For more information, please contact Chris Wheeler at 303-862-8204 or cwheeler@msu.edu.

Sexual Assault Awareness Month Summit Call for Proposals

The 2nd annual SAAM Summit will be “Beyond The Single Story: Strengthening our Understanding of Gender, Sexuality, and Violence,” with the goal to deepen and complicate the narratives around the intersectionality of gender, sexuality, and gender-based violence. Our keynote for the summit is Andrea Gibson who will perform on the evening of April 7th, followed by a day of workshops on April 8th. Please save the date and consider submitting a proposal for a workshop through the following link by February 19th. This year’s summit is a collaborative effort by many of DU’s student, administrative, and faculty groups.
GRADUATE STUDENTS

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES (CONTINUED)

Global Health Advancement First Aid

March 16-18, 2016 - JKSIS, DU: GHAF® an innovative three-day program to prepare global workers, travelers, and students to identify and respond to common first aid, emergency, and serious medical situations in an international, austere environment. Emphasis is on prevention, assessment, and self-treatment. Instruction includes a combination of lecture, discussion, hands-on practice, scenarios, and optional CPR certification. For more information and to register, click here. View the flyer on Korbel’s graduate Portfolio site.

In addition to one weekly email, the KQ is always available on the ISSTA Portfolio site.

Supplemental items (including flyers, ads, etc.) will be under the “Korbel Quick & Events” tab.

If you have any questions, don’t hesitate to contact us at issta@du.edu, or stop by our office in Suite 101!

~Student Affairs
GRADUATE STUDENTS

OFFICE OF CAREER AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT—ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

Compensation Negotiation Workshop
Feb. 24, 12-2pm, BMC 141
The OCPD is offering this workshop designed to give students the essential tools and confidence to negotiate a fair compensation package and will cover the principles of compensation negotiation.

All-University Career Fair
Feb. 17, 3-6pm, Gates Field House
Network with 124 different employers, learn more about local/national companies and industry hiring trends, and find internships/jobs! More info: www.du.edu/career/

You’re about to graduate… now what? Job Club!
Starting Friday, February 12th the application for spring quarter Job Search Club will be available online at www.korbelcareers.com under the survey tab. This program helps develop a proactive job search strategy, and is limited to 12 participants who are within one quarter of graduating.

WASH Study Abroad in Malawi Info Session
Feb. 9 at 1pm in BMC 301 AND Feb. 11 at 12pm in BMC 141
Learn about a 5-credit, 3 week study abroad course in Malawi to explore WASH issues in the classroom and through community-based research projects.

Internship Alerts: More info at KorbelCareers.com Job Postings
• U.S. Department of State Fall 2016 Internship (Posting ID 25125): 3/1
• Newmont Mining Government Relations Intern (Posting ID 25307): 2/26
• SIGAR Student Employment Program (Posting 25313): 2/29
• Colorado DOT Winter/Spring Intern (Posting 25362): Apply ASAP

Fellowship Deadlines: OCPD can help with your application!
• Grameen Foundation (Bankers Without Borders): 3/1
• Hybl Democracy Studies Fellowship: 3/15

WAIT—there’s more for Korbel graduates from OCPD!
Find events, internships, fellowships, and programming, look for the “KorbelCareers Weekly Highlights” in your inbox on Wednesdays! (You may need to check your spam folder.)
UNDERGRADUATES

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Join FREE DU! - Tuesdays - 6:15pm - Nelson Private Dining Room: A new students organization, FREE DU (Freedom, Rights, Education, Evolution), is seeking new members to focus on defending human rights such as human security in several countries and also combatting human rights violations, specifically those of adolescent girls in developing countries. If this issue interests you, FREE DU has weekly meetings at 6:15pm in Nelson’s Private Dining Room.

EVENTS

*There are no undergraduate-specific events to report at this time.

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES

Master’s Program Available in Edinburgh, Scotland: North American undergraduate students who are thinking of getting their Master’s Degree have the opportunity to study at Edinburgh University in Scotland. Geared towards individuals who want to study global environmental politics, the University of Edinburgh is offering a Global Masters Scholarship to attend. For more in-depth or general information, please contact Professor Elizabeth Bomberg at e.bomberg@ed.ac.uk.

Friendship Bridge Internship Opportunities: Friendship Bridge is a nongovernmental international organization that provides educational programs in Guatemala so women and their families can create their own solutions to problems. There are two internship opportunities that could promote your understanding of how NGOs operate.

- Social Media and Marketing Internship Summer/Spring 2016 - unpaid internship that will assist in implantation of its social media strategy across platforms including, but not limited to, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Google Plus, and LinkedIn. Other duties can include blog submission and planning crowdfunding campaigns. In addition, to your resume and cover letter, please send a writing sample (less than 2 pages) to dbruxvoort@friendshipbridge.org.
- International Development and Fundraising Internship 3/4 Month Internship - Day-to-day tasks include administrative work, communications, as well as fundraising and research. The intern will also help develop strategies to inspire donors to support Friendship Bridge’s mission. Please send your resume and cover letter to volunteer@friendshipbridge.org if interested.
EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES (CONTINUED)

The Vaclav Havel Library Foundation Fellowship for Human Rights, a summer fellowship in Prague for undergraduate students studying in the United States has begun its inaugural year! This fellowship is a fully-funded two-week opportunity that will engage undergrads with different organizations fighting for human rights in Prague, Czech Republic. If interested or wanting more information, follow this link here.

MA/MSc in International and World History at Columbia University and the London School of Economics

The world is more interconnected than ever. Join leading historians to study how we arrived how the world became more interconnected than ever. Through an innovative curriculum includes a two-year sequence of reading and research seminars, interdisciplinary electives, and intensive foreign language training, this program provides the students with new frameworks and tools to understand the transnational forces that have shaped our world: migration, trade, war, technology, epidemic disease, and environmental change. Students will spend one year in New York and one year in London and receive a Master’s degree.

Students spend the first year in New York and the second year in London and receive Master’s degrees from both institutions. Immersed in the vibrant intellectual communities of two of the world’s greatest cities, graduates are prepared for careers in government, journalism, think tanks, NGOs, and academia.

The program offers summer research fellowships and financial aid opportunities.

Early application deadline is January 15, 2016. Final application deadline is March 15, 2016. To learn more, please click here.