Are you Interested in Germany and the European Union?

Monday, February 8th at the International House’s dining room join us for two special events focused on study and current events in Germany and the EU. These events are open to both undergraduate and graduate students. Please remember to bring your own lunch.

11:00am – 12:00pm:
Stefan Biedermann, The Deputy Consul of Cultural Affairs for Germany, will be discussing the theme: “The European Union today: financial crisis in Greece, a wave of refugees at the European borders, the reappearance of authoritarianism in Russia – is Europe up to its challenges? Or does the vision of peaceful united Europe eventually prove to be unrealistic?”

12:00pm – 1:00pm:
Hanni Geist, Information Officer for the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), will be discussing “Discover Germany: Study and Funding Opportunities through the DAAD”. These opportunities are available for both graduate and undergraduate students.
