ALL STUDENTS

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Anna & John J. Sie International Relations Complex and Welcome Back!
Welcome back JKSIS students! The Office of Student and Academic Affairs hopes that all of you had a great Spring Break and are ready to take on Spring Quarter! As you may have noticed, our new building, the Anna & John J. Sie International Relations Complex is open. Please come by and view our new space and check out our office in Suite 2030. Have a great Spring Quarter everyone!

Roosevelt @ DU
Roosevelt @ DU, or, Roo @ DU, is a non-partisan student “think tank.” Unlike a stereotypical think tank, Roo @ DU is advocacy focused: we get out work with the people in power in creating real change. Whatever it is you’re passionate about (really, anything), Roosevelt will help empower you to influence the people who can actually make the difference. Members have been nationally published and foreign officials from the Middle East and India have attended events for Roo @ DU. Weekly meetings are held in the Driscoll Underground on Tuesdays at 6pm, with the next meeting on Tuesday, March 29, 2016. Refer to their website, duroosevelt.org, as well as their Facebook and Twitter for more information.

CultureFest 2016
CultureFest is a DU tradition that celebrates of all the cultural diversity at the University of Denver through performances, food, and interactive booths! We invite you to apply to host a booth or do a cultural performance to share your culture with the campus that will be on April 15, 2016 at the Driscoll Ballroom! Booths can sell food, demonstrate a cultural tradition, educate participants, or promote a student organization. Please visit our website here to learn more about the event and reserve your booth or performance space by March 31.

New Library Hours
The Anderson Academic Commons will no longer be a 24-hour building. For Mondays through Fridays, it will open at 7am with the building closing at 2am on Mondays through Thursdays and 10pm on Fridays. The building will also be open on Saturday from 9am-10pm and Sundays from 10pm-2am.

Health and Counseling Drop-in Counseling Hours
The Health and Counseling Center will provide Let’s Talk drop-in counseling consultations on for DU students. To see available times and locations, please visit Portfolio.
English Tutoring at the Center for World Languages and Culture

The Center for World Languages and Cultures is excited to announce that tutoring in English is now available to matriculated international students. Tutors have open office hours in the Language Center in Anderson Academic Commons; for more information click here. Students may drop in any time during those hours for help. Tutors can help with all skills – reading, listening, speaking, grammar and mechanics, and some writing support. If you need help specifically on writing assignments, you may be sent to the Writing Center for more concentrated writing help. We look forward to working with you!

EVENTS

Hip Hop and the Law - March 29, 2016 - 6:00pm, Sturm College of Law Room 165:
Please join the Black Law Students Association (BLSA) and the Student Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) for a discussion on the recent book Hip Hop and the Law. One of the editors, Professor Donald F. Tibbs, will be coming to Denver Law to discuss hip hop’s connection to constitutional law. To view the flyer, please visit Portfolio.

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES

Global Health First Aid Course
The CU College of Medicine will be giving a first aid course that will prepare students for common first aid, emergency, and serious medical situations in an international environment. Click here for more information.
ANNOUNCEMENTS

Summer Quarter 2016 Schedule Now Available
The schedule of Summer Quarter 2016 courses is now posted on our Portfolio Community site, and graduate registration for Summer Quarter 2016 opens on Monday, April 11, 2016.

Deadline to Apply for Summer Quarter 2016 Graduation
If you are on track to graduate in August 2016, please remember that Sunday, March 27, 2016 is the deadline to apply for graduation online via PioneerWeb, and Monday, March 28, 2016 is the deadline to submit required documentation to Office of Academic and Student Affairs. For more information, please review the relevant Graduation Application Instructions Checklist posted on our Portfolio Community site.

Reminder Regarding Official Policies
This is a friendly reminder that your fellow students are not an official source of policy and that consulting with them in lieu of established departmental and institutional policy is highly problematic and not advised. If you have questions about degree requirements after having consulted the bulletin/handbook that governs your particular admit year and/or the Graduate Policies and Procedures Bulletin, please consult your degree director and/or the Director of Graduate Student Affairs for guidance and clarification.

Employment Opportunity with DU Housing & Residential Education
The DU Office of Housing & Residential Education currently has six student staff positions open for part-time employment. The positions provide housing, meals and a yearly stipend – excellent for a graduate student! The job description and application are both in the link: http://www.du.edu/housing/staff/join/student/index.html.

Crisis Engagement and Negotiation Exercise (CENEX) Registration Opens March 4
CENEX is a professional crisis simulation. It immerses students in a realistic scenario in which they experience some of the constraints faced by decision-makers during crisis negotiation and management. It will be held on April 8th - April 9th. Click here to register when it becomes available on March 4.

Community Language Institute Spring Language Classes
The Center for World Languages & Cultures is proud to announce the spring class offerings as part of the Community Language Institute. These classes that are taught in the evening and provide practice settings for cultural exposure are ideal for graduate students trying to learn a new language or brush up on their current skills for the language proficiency test or for lifelong learners who want to learn a language. Spring classes start March 21st, 2016. Class descriptions and registration information is available online. If you have any questions, contact cwlc@du.edu.
GRADUATE STUDENTS

EVENTS

*There are no graduate-specific events to report at this time.

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES

PhD Candidates:
The Canadian Foreign Policy Journal (CFPJ), in conjunction with the William and Jeanie Barton Chair in International Affairs and the Norman Paterson School of International Affairs (NPSIA), is hosting an emerging scholars workshop from October 6-7, 2016. Papers will be selected on a competitive basis for submission to the peer-reviewed Canadian Foreign Policy Journal. The resulting publication will mark a considerable contribution to an emerging field by the most promising minds that will explore solutions to global challenges in a single volume. For more information, click here.
GRADUATE STUDENTS

OFFICE OF CAREER AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT—ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

Korbel Careers has Changed Offices!
Now located in Suite 1005 in the Sie International Relations Complex
We are now located on the first floor of the new Sie Complex in a shared suite with Admissions, across the way from the Student Forum.

Posner Center Student Open House
April 13, 5-7pm; Posner Center Commons
This is the one night of the year our doors are open only to students. It’s your chance to walk directly into an organization’s headquarters and connect directly with them—no meeting or pre-scheduled informational interview required. RSVP online at http://posnercenter.org/events/04-13-2016-openhouse/

Internship Alerts: More info at KorbelCareers.com Job Postings
• Carnegie Middle East Center (posting ID 25600) application due 4/24
• Carnegie Middle East Center (posting ID 25601) application due 4/24
• UN Relief and Works Agency (posting ID 25681) application due 4/4

Fellowship Deadlines: OCPD can help with your application!
• New York State Senate Graduate Fellowships 4/29

WAIT—there’s more for Korbel graduates from OCPD! Find events, internships, fellowships, and programming, look for the “KorbelCareers Weekly Highlights” in your inbox on Wednesdays! (You may need to check your spam folder.)

In addition to one weekly email, the KQ is always available on the ISSTA Portfolio site.

Supplemental items (including flyers, ads, etc.) will be under the “Korbel Quick & Events” tab.

If you have any questions, don’t hesitate to contact us at issta@du.edu, or stop by our office in Suite 101!

~Student Affairs
UNDERGRADUATES

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Internship with One Heart Source in Jamaica or South Africa
One Heart Source is an international non-profit is accepting application for its 1, 2, and 4 week programs in Jamaica and South Africa. You can begin the application here and application deadlines are March 25 and April 8. For more information, please visit oneheartsourc.org.

EVENTS

Exploring Majors and Careers Workshop - March 31, 2016 - 2:00pm, (location will be updated on Career Center Blog): Feeling confused about your major or career plans? Register for this 3 part workshop series where we’ll uncover your top interests, skills, values and personality traits and help you use that information to uncover majors and careers that suit you best. You’ll have the opportunity to learn which direction to take after graduating with a degree in International Studies from Korbel.

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES

Master’s Program Available in Edinburgh, Scotland: North American undergraduate students who are thinking of getting their Master’s Degree have the opportunity to study at Edinburgh University in Scotland. Geared towards individuals who want to study global environmental politics, the University of Edinburgh is offering a Global Masters Scholarship to attend. For more in-depth or general information, please contact Professor Elizabeth Bomberg at e.bomberg@ed.ac.uk.

If you have any questions, don’t hesitate to contact us at issta@du.edu, or stop by our office in Suite 101!

~Student Affairs