The U.S. Department of State Diplomat in Residence for the Rocky Mountain Southwest region is visiting DU! Join her to learn more about:

- Creating a competitive application for internship opportunities in Washington, DC and in embassies around the world,
- What a career in the State Department or Foreign Service looks like, and how to apply,
- The new Virtual Student Foreign Service Internship Program—stay in Denver and work remotely

Before becoming Diplomat in Residence based at the University of New Mexico, Anne Callaghan served as a member of the Foreign Service in Canada, Iraq, Mexico, Australia, Japan, Italy, and Colombia. She received her undergraduate degree in East Asian Studies from Colby College and graduate degrees from the University of Michigan School of Library and Information Science and the National War College.
