ANNOUNCEMENTS

Roosevelt @ DU
Roosevelt @ DU, or, Roo @ DU, is a non-partisan student “think tank.” Unlike a stereotypical think tank, Roo @ DU is advocacy focused: we get out work with the people in power in creating real change. Whatever it is you’re passionate about (really, anything), Roosevelt will help empower you to influence the people who can actually make the difference. Members have been nationally published and foreign officials from the Middle East and India have attended events for Roo @ DU. Weekly meetings are held in the Driscoll Underground on Tuesdays at 6pm. Refer to their website, duroosevelt.org, as well as their Facebook and Twitter for more information.

CultureFest 2016
CultureFest is a DU tradition that celebrates all the cultural diversity at the University of Denver through performances, food, and interactive booths! We invite you to apply to host a booth or do a cultural performance to share your culture with the campus that will be on April 15, 2016 at the Driscoll Ballroom! Booths can sell food, demonstrate a cultural tradition, educate participants, or promote a student organization. Please visit our website here to learn more about the event and reserve your booth or performance space by March 31.

New Library Hours
The Anderson Academic Commons will no longer be a 24-hour building. For Mondays through Fridays, it will open at 7am with the building closing at 2am on Mondays through Thursdays and 10pm on Fridays. The building will also be open on Saturday from 9am-10pm and Sundays from 10pm-2am.

Health and Counseling Drop-in Counseling Hours
The Health and Counseling Center will provide Let’s Talk drop-in counseling consultations on for DU students. To see available times and locations, please visit Portfolio.

Summer Interterm Cross-Cultural Travel Course: Immigration, Communication & Border Cultures
This experiential learning course takes place in Tucson, AZ and south to the US-Mexico border to study immigration issues, and involves various activities including walking on a migrant trail in the Sonoma Desert; visiting the US-Mexico border wall, and an immigration detention center, and Operation Streamline in the courts, and meetings with human rights activists and immigration officials. The course will be from June 12-18. For more information contact Prof. Margie Thompson. To view the course flyer, please visit Portfolio.
English Tutoring at the Center for World Languages and Culture
The Center for World Languages and Cultures is excited to announce that tutoring in English is now available to matriculated international students. Tutors have open office hours in the Language Center in Anderson Academic Commons; for more information click here. Students may drop in any time during those hours for help. Tutors can help with all skills – reading, listening, speaking, grammar and mechanics, and some writing support. We look forward to working with you!

Summer Online Course (MFJS 4655: Multicultural Journalism)
Multicultural Journalism will be an online class for both undergraduate and graduate students from June 18 to August 11. This class explores issues of culture and intercultural communication and applies these to journalistic writing as a creative process and craft. Students work to develop their own “voices” as multicultural writers/journalists through creative writing assignments. Prior journalism coursework or journalism/writing experience preferred. Contact Prof. Margie Thompson for more information or view the course flyer here.

Mental Health Focus Group
Focus Group on Mental Health & Improving Student Support! Do you have ideas for how DU can help students feel more connected to our campus community? The Health and Counseling Center wants to learn what students think DU can do better so all students are supported in promoting their mental, emotional, and spiritual wellbeing. Thanks for helping to improve the campus community for current & future students! For more information, please see flyer on Portfolio.

EVENTS

Department of State Diplomat in Residence Coming to DU—April 12, 2016—noon, 1st Floor Forum in New Building: Anne Callaghan, the State Department’s Diplomat in Residence for the Rocky Mountains Southwest Region is coming to DU. Come learn from a government official and expert on how to build a competitive resume, internship opportunities, and learn what a career in the Foreign Service looks like. To view the event flyer, please visit our Portfolio site.

Just Wages Navigator Training—April 13, 2016—6:00 pm to 8:00 pm, Mile High United Way, 711 Park Avenue: This program will train volunteers to assist victims of wage theft in recovering their earned wages through the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment (CDLE) administrative process. Participants will then receive hands-on training on how to file a wage theft claim with the CDLE. For more information and to RSVP, please contact Rebecca Galemba.
EVENTS (CONTINUED)

No Lost Generation Student Body Meeting—April 12, 2016—5:00 pm, SIE Complex 2015: No Lost Generation is now an official student group! NLG DU mobilizes our community in the international effort to expand access to education for Syrian refugees. All DU students are encouraged to get involved! For more details see our Facebook event or and contact NoLostGeneration with questions.

2016 Denver Anti-Trafficking Alliance (DATA) Conference—April 15, 2016—8:00 am to 4:30 pm, Johnson & Wales University: Please join us for the Denver Anti-Trafficking Alliance's Conference. Spend your Tax Day learning about how trafficking manifests itself in the Denver metro area and how local and national groups and agencies are working to combat trafficking. Expert keynote speakers will add depth and breadth of knowledge to the proceedings. Please contact us with any questions, and see event schedule and ticket information.

Is it the end of the world? Unravelling the facts and fiction of the Zika virus—April 12, 2016—noon, BMC 301: Dr. Sandy Johnson, PhD will facilitate a discussion that will explore the current scientific knowledge about Zika and balance this with both common sense and knowledge about the spread of other arboviruses in order to understand what the real threats from this emerging infection are. Please see flyer on Portfolio.

Winners of the 2015-2016 Call for Papers Presentations—April 13, 2016—noon, BMC 301: Please join Students for Africa and African Initiatives for presentations from the Winners of our 2016 Call for Papers Contest! First place: Sonora Dolce, AHSS, Lamont School of Music; Second place: Luke Temple, International Security, JKSIS; Third place: Coleen Hogan, International Development, JKSIS. Food will be provided. Please see flyer on Portfolio.

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES

Strategic Corporate Research Summer School
The AFL-CIO and Cornell University are sponsoring a Strategic Corporate Research Summer School on June 12-17, 2016 in Ithaca, New York. The application deadline is April 29. The course is designed for students and others who want to make corporations accountable by working as researchers in unions and social change organizations. Partial scholarships are available to non-sponsored individuals based on need who opt for the advanced track. For more info, view the flyer here, email scrsummer@cornell.edu, call 607-269-7246, or go to the course website here.
EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES (CONTINUED)

Summer Interterm in Washington, D.C.

Join the Public Policy department for a summer interterm course from June 5 to June 10 that provides a unique and intense perspective on policy-making in D.C. Highlights include seminars at the Capitol with the Senate Budget Committee, foreign policy seminar at Brookings Institute, visits with CO Congressmen, and alumni networking. Financial aid available. For more info, please email Debbie Gaylinn or visit the website.

In addition to one weekly email, the KQ is always available on the ISSTA Portfolio site.

Supplemental items (including flyers, ads, etc.) will be under the “Korbel Quick & Events” tab.

If you have any questions, don’t hesitate to contact us at isssta@du.edu, or stop by our office in Suite 2030 in the new building!

For event submissions, please visit this survey. Note that each KQ will show events only one week in advance.

~Student Affairs
GRADUATE STUDENTS

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Summer Quarter 2016 Schedule Now Available
The schedule of Summer Quarter 2016 courses is now posted on our Portfolio Community site, and graduate registration for Summer Quarter 2016 opens on Monday, April 11, 2016.

Reminder Regarding Official Policies
This is a friendly reminder that your fellow students are not an official source of policy and that consulting with them in lieu of established departmental and institutional policy is highly problematic and not advised. If you have questions about degree requirements after having consulted the bulletin/handbook that governs your particular admit year and/or the Graduate Policies and Procedures Bulletin, please consult your degree director and/or the Director of Graduate Student Affairs for guidance and clarification.

Employment Opportunity with DU Housing & Residential Education
The DU Office of Housing & Residential Education currently has student staff positions open for part-time employment. The positions provide housing, meals and a yearly stipend—excellent for a graduate student! The job description and application can be found here.

Apply for the Humanitarian Assistance Certificate Program
The application to apply for the Humanitarian Assistance Certificate Program offered by Korbel is now live. The deadline for application submissions is April 15 by 11:00pm. To apply, fill out this form. To complete your application, submit your resume to haprog@du.edu. For more information about the program, visit our website, and please contact haprog@du.edu with any questions.

EVENTS
*There are no graduate-specific events to report at this time.

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES

PhD Candidates:
The Canadian Foreign Policy Journal (CFPJ), in conjunction with the William and Jeanie Barton Chair in International Affairs and the Norman Paterson School of International Affairs (NPSIA), is hosting an emerging scholars workshop from October 6-7, 2016. Papers will be selected on a competitive basis for submission to the peer-reviewed Canadian Foreign Policy Journal. The resulting publication will mark a considerable contribution to an emerging field by the most promising minds that will explore solutions to global challenges in a single volume. For more information, click here.
OFFICE OF CAREER AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT—ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

Dept. of State Information Session
April 12, 12-2pm, First Floor Student Forum
Diplomat in Residence Anne Callaghan will be returning to Korbel for a State Department information session including information about State Department internships and the Foreign Service application process.

Systems Planning and Analysis Inc. Info Session
April 12, 12:15-1:15pm, Sie 3130 (formerly BMC 309)
Join us for the Systems Planning and Analysis Inc. (SPA) Info Session for more information about opportunities with this security strategies organization.

Internship Alerts:
More info at KorbelCareers.com Job Postings
- African Community Center (posting ID 25846, 25847) due ASAP
- Counterterrorism Education Learning Lab (posting ID 25849) due ASAP
- More than 25 jobs are posted on the Korbel Careers Weekly Highlights Newsletter—check it out now for a quick list of available internships!

Internship Deadlines
Put these in your planner!
- Internship registration deadline for Spring Quarter: April 18th
- Spring Quarter Internship closing deadline: May 27th
- Priority funding deadline: accepted on a rolling basis, with priority funding deadline of May 5th for summer 2016 opportunities

All the information you need can be found on the Internship Information tab of Portfolio (be sure to log in to Portfolio to see all the great content)!

WAIT—there’s more for Korbel graduates from OCPD! Find events, internships, fellowships, and programming, look for the “KorbelCareers Weekly Highlights” in your inbox on Wednesdays! (You may need to check your spam folder.)
UNDERGRADUATES

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Internship with One Heart Source in Jamaica or South Africa
One Heart Source is an international non-profit is accepting application for its 1, 2, and 4 week programs in Jamaica and South Africa. You can begin the application here and application deadlines are March 25 and April 8. For more information, please visit one-heartsouce.org.

EVENTS

*There are no undergraduate-specific events to report at this time.

EXTERNAL OPPORTUNITIES

Master’s Program Available in Edinburgh, Scotland: North American undergraduate students who are thinking of getting their Master’s Degree have the opportunity to study at Edinburgh University in Scotland. Geared towards individuals who want to study global environmental politics, the University of Edinburgh is offering a Global Masters Scholarship to attend. For more in-depth or general information, please contact Professor Elizabeth Bomberg at e.bomberg@ed.ac.uk.

Official Disclaimer: The BA Program at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies neither endorses, nor recommends any particular program, organization, opportunity, project, or event, and we do not offer any guarantee as to information, products or any other services. We recommend that individuals do independent research regarding the opportunities/events detailed herein.