Summer Interterm 2016

PPOL 3701/4701 - 4 credits
Location: Washington, D.C.

Travel Dates: Arrive by the afternoon of June 5th and depart the evening of June 10th or later
Course Dates: June 5-10, 2016
Instructor: Richard Caldwell

This course will provide a unique and intense perspective on policy-making in Washington, D.C., with specific emphasis on the fiscal crisis confronting the United States.

Anticipated Events Include:
* Seminars at the U.S. Capitol with Senior Staff members of the Senate Budget Committee.
* Foreign Policy and National Security Seminar featuring Michael O'Hanlon, Director of Security Research, the Brookings Institution.
* Visits with members of the Colorado Congressional delegation including Senator Michael Bennet and Congressman Corey Gardner.

Prerequisite: Sophomore standing or higher.

Approximate Travel Costs*:
Airfare: $350 (Students responsible for making flight arrangements.)
Program Fee: $1600 (Fee covers double-occupancy lodging at Willard Hotel, and one group dinner. Single occupancy rate available upon request. Program fee is applied to tuition bill.)
Cancellation Fee: $1600 (Fee will be applied to student account in the event student drops course.)
Food: $50 per day (Approximate)

*These figures are estimates and subject to change. Cost of tuition is additional.

For more information regarding course content, contact Richard Caldwell at Richard.Caldwell@du.edu.
Please direct all other inquiries to Special Community Programs at 303-871-2360.

SPACE IS LIMITED TO 8 STUDENTS.
Deadline to apply is May 1 or when course is full.
http://www.du.edu/specpro/interterm/summer/washdc.html