

October 26, 2017

BREAKING GROUND

UNIVERSITY of DENVER

JOSEF KORBEL SCHOOL of
INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

International Studies + Public Policy Internship Newsletter: October 26, 2017

Attention Undergraduates: A Call for Papers!

2018 Transatlantic Policy Symposium—Georgetown University

Event: February 9, 2018

Submission Deadline: Friday, December 1, 2017

Internal and external forces in Europe and the United States are reshaping the transatlantic relationship, which presents a variety of challenges and opportunities. Analyzing these trends is crucial to understanding and shaping the transatlantic relationship moving forward. The 2018 Transatlantic Policy Symposium at Georgetown University will bring together established experts with the next generation of transatlantic leaders to discuss related topics. We are seeking papers that address the forces affecting the future of the transatlantic relationship.

For more information visit <http://tapsgeorgetown.com/>

Foreign Affairs/Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy 2017 Student Essay Competition

Submission Deadline: Friday, November 10, 2017

Foreign Affairs and the the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy want to give tomorrow's leaders the opportunity to demonstrate innovative thinking on the issues that shape their world. In the 2017 Student Essay Competition, a panel from Foreign Affairs and the LKY School of Policy will select one undergraduate's essay to be published on the Foreign Affairs Web site. This year's essay competition challenges students to address the following prompt: Does populism pose a threat to international order? Why or why not, and what can be done about it?

For more information on the competition or to enter a submission, visit here.

In this issue:

- A Call for Papers!
- Upcoming Events
- Featured Internships
- Spotlight on... Denver and the Arts!

Dine & Dialogue: International Careers

Thursday, November 2, 2017

12pm—1pm

Leo Block Alumni Center Conference Room

Enjoy a free conversational lunch and networking opportunity with DU alumni working in international careers. Learn about their professional paths and get advice on how best to land jobs in this field. Space is limited, registration required by October 31st at noon. For more information on alumni attending and to register visit :

du.edu/pioneercareers.

Habitat for Humanity Information Session

Friday, November 3, 2017

9am—10:30am

The Forum, Sie Complex, Room 1020

The Office of Academic and Student Affairs is proud to host Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver at Korb on November 3rd. Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver provides the opportunity for low-income families to become homeowners. Established in 1979, Habitat Denver has become one of the largest affiliates in the U.S., serving over 800 families. With the help of thousands of volunteers each year, homeowners achieve the strength, stability and independence they need to build a better life. Join us for an informative session and learn how you can make a difference.

To RSVP for this event, please follow this link and submit a form with your name and contact information:

Networking Etiquette Mixer

Monday, November 6, 2017

5pm—7pm

JBC 229 and Tuscan Ballroom

Are you in your final two years of undergraduate studies? Will 2018 see you searching for an internship, employment, or career development opportunities? Learn the essentials of networking from an employer with etiquette expertise, and put it to use during a mocktail hour with DU alumni!

Finding Research Experiences—Workshop

Thursday, November 2, 2017

4pm—5pm

ECS 410

In this workshop, given by Kyle Inselman and Kimberly White, students will be able to define the term "research experience" and learn about its value in their career development, strategize around finding on-campus opportunities for research, and explore resources for off-campus research opportunities in the Denver area and beyond.

Visit Pioneer Careers online to register.

Upcoming Events

Colorado Nonprofit Organization— Spring 2018
Public Policy Internship

Deadline: Open Until Filled

This unpaid internship offers a unique opportunity to work on policy issues affecting nonprofit organizations throughout the state. This role supports the Colorado Nonprofit Association public policy team with communications, research, event assistance, and development of informational materials.

Interns selected for the program will primarily assist with policy issues and events related to the Colorado legislative session but may have opportunities to assist with relevant federal or local policy issues. Find more information and apply here.

Congressional Internship Program, Spring 2018 —
Congresswoman Deborah DeGette

Deadline: Year-Round admission, Summer internships are more competitive

If you are a student interested in how Congress works and how federal policy impacts states and localities, Congresswoman Diana DeGette is seeking enthusiastic individuals to fill unpaid internships available at her Washington D.C. Office as well as her District Office in Denver, Colorado.

Internships are available year-round, although the summer months tend to be more competitive. Interested individuals should send the following documents to our offices:

- A cover letter (stating preferred term of service)
- Résumé
- Brief writing sample (l.e. 2-3 pages of academic assignment)

All materials can be submitted to: andrea.autobee-trujillo@mail.house.gov.

US Department of State—Pathways Experience Program

Deadline: Oct. 27, or until positions are filled

In the US Department of State's Pathways Internship Experience Program, Student Trainees work closely with U.S. diplomats and Civil Service professionals who carry out America's foreign policy initiatives. To witness and participate in U.S. foreign policy formulation and implementation, consider a Pathways internship with the U.S. Department of State.!

U.S. citizenship is required for all positions. If you have any questions or would like to search for topics of interest, please contact HRSC@state.gov or visit our forums or FAQs at careers.state.gov.

To get started on an application, visit USAJOBS and create your profile today!

Featured Internships

Spotlight on...

Denver and the Arts!

Internship at the Denver Post (Paid)

Deadline: October 31, 2017

The No. 1 newspaper in the Rocky Mountain region, The Denver Post, is helping shape the futures of the next generation of journalists by offering a 10-week paid internship for the summer of 2018. To do so, we are looking for talented students who want to make a difference. Denver Post interns are paid more than $500 per week (housing and transportation to Denver are not included).

Our editors choose full-time summer interns in news, business and features reporting (3 positions); digital production; photography; videography; and information design/visual communication. If you are applying for one of these positions, please email your cover letter, your resume with references, and an online portfolio or link to clips to internships@denverpost.com. Only digital applications will be accepted.

Denver Art Museum—Museum Education Internship

Deadline: November 15, 2017

Would you like to experience working with one of the most progressive and dynamic education departments in the country? Museum education internships within the Department of Learning and Engagement provide practical experience working closely with educators at the Denver Art Museum.

Our internships provide opportunities to engage diverse audiences, connect visitors and communities with art, assist with our vast offering of programs, and research objects in the collection. Furthermore, in order to best serve our current and future visitors we strive to maximize the diversity, equity, and inclusiveness of our organization. Therefore, we encourage candidates that represent and embody the diversity found within our community to apply.

For more information regarding application requirements and submission, please follow this link.

Official Disclaimer: The BA Program at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies neither endorses, nor recommends any particular program, organization, opportunity, project, or event, and we do not offer any guarantee as to information, products or any other services.