LOVING VINCENT: VAN GOGH THROUGH MULTIMEDIA
(a 4-week OLLI mini-course)

Facilitator: Judith Vlasin
Email: judithvlasin@gmail.com
Phone: 303-797-6822

No book is required for this class. Access to a computer and internet are necessary.
(A printer is needed if you like to print out copies of poems, stories, etc., although it is not necessary to bring these to class.)

This class is not intended to be a chronological journey through Van Gogh’s life.
Instead, it presents poetry, music, short stories, excerpts, and one feature film, all of which attest to his continuing influence on art, artists and art lovers.

WEEK ONE: A Fanatic Heart: The Right Time and the Right Place

WEEK TWO: Orphan Man: High Times and Low Times, Arles and Auvers,

WEEK THREE: Movie: Loving Vincent* (the world’s first oil painted feature film)
*See the trailer here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RV7L2CSzoNQ

WEEK FOUR: Tragedy and Success: Illusions Fade but the Sublime Remains